Police Officers and Families

Father Phil and I are inviting you and your wife or husband to an open group session which will begin on April 21st, and take place in the Parish Center at 7200 N. Osceola.

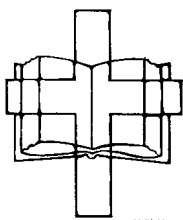

There will be four different sessions during which we will be discussing a range of topics dealing and affecting police officers and their families.

We will be assisted in this program by Gerald Bolger, retired CPD and Rory Gilbert, both of whom are co-directors of St. Michael's House.

These sessions will be very beneficial so feel free to invite fellow police officers and their spouses.

If you have any questions, please call Father at 631.4386 ext. 27 or myself at 631.8265.

Respectfully,
Ed Dolan

Father Phil's Ramblings

Wasting Time With God

In our busy day do we take time to "Waste Time" with God. I believe it is good to look at our day and examine our use of time. Otherwise there is a real danger that we will drift through life, pleasantly but perhaps, aimlessly.

A man who woke to the fact that he was spending hours at a bar, watching T.V. and neglecting his family decided to change his ways.

Now that man spends a little time each morning in quiet reflection and does what he calls his "if only". He imagines it is the end of the day and thinks "if only"... I had taken the children for a walk...if only I had written the letter to that sick friend...if only I had told my wife how much she means to me. He then spent the rest of the day doing the things on his "if only list". He lives with the energy that comes from accepting and using well the wonderful gifts that God gives him.

Perhaps the most precious time of all is that which we "waste" with God. It may only be 10 minutes of silent prayer. We struggle with "wasting" time but when we persevere, day after day, we will find by God's grace, that all our time is transformed by His love in our lives.

Love is what lasts and in heaven there is no time.

So while we make our journey here, waste time with God and may our "what if's" become a reality.

Lent is a time to waste time for God.

Last Sunday, the Cub Scouts Troop 3965 served a delicious pancake breakfast. Approximately 1400 people were fed and enjoyed the feast. A special round of applause to the chefs and the servers. Everything was wonderful. Let's do it again!

Last Tuesday the annual Irish Family Mass was celebrated. The wearing of the green was quite evident. Many people make that celebration a glorious tribute to St. Patrick and the Irish. Congratulations to Mary Jane Roddy who presented the Golden Rose to Mary and to Herb Cole who received the annual Donald J. Ahearn Humanitarian Award.

Today we honor St. Joseph and our St. Joseph Table Committee invites you to the 5th annual St. Joseph Table in the school hall. The committee has been preparing for months. The committee's service and devotion to St. Joseph and this parish is truly a sign of true love.

May St. Patrick and St. Joseph smile and grace our parish throughout this year.

"All Are Welcome, All Are Welcome..."

The Church is definitely in the "RCIA Mode" as we approach Easter. What's that again...RCIA? Oh, you forgot again, did you? Well, it means the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. Last week Eric Garrison and Jeneen Shipman did a wonderful job of introducing themselves to you all. There's one more "seeker".

Chuck writes:

"My name is Charles Vosburgh, and I live with my wife Mary Grant in Niles. I have a daughter who is expecting her first child in September, and a son who lives and works in Wheaton.

Religion means 'to bind fast,' which for us Christians I take as meaning the person-to-person connection with God. Mary and most of my friends are Catholic, and I have attended mass with them often. Over the years I have grown to realize that the way Catholics use the senses in celebrating the sacraments helps me to better feel this connection with God. The kneeling, genuflection, holy water, statues, incense, candles and rosaries all strengthen this 'connection to God,' and makes me want to be a member of the Catholic community, and of St. Juliana Parish."

Isn't it wonderful to have people like Chuck, Eric, and Jeneen in our family? They help us to see with clear eyes, hear with a renewed acuity, and feel the wonders of our Catholic Christian tradition. It has been an enriching experience being with them these past many weeks of our program.

Here's a good example of what I mean. Last week, before the 9:00 am Eucharist at which we introduced the RCIA participants and their families, Chuck asked me: "Why is there no water in the holy water fonts?" I explained that it's part of the penitential spirit of the Lenten season. But that it's also to build up our anticipation for the Baptismal ritual of Holy Saturday night. It also has the very simple effect of getting people to think about Lent and the Easter Mysteries: "Hey! Where's the holy water?" It breaks up our normal ordinary-time-of-the-year routine and draws attention to the Lenten time.

Yes, Chuck certainly has a beautiful insight when he refers to the "sensible" aspect of our Faith. It's a meaningful way to experience the Incarnation in our very selves, in our bodies and in our hearts and minds. That can give us all pause to reflect on how we use our senses at the Liturgy and in prayer. It really is so important how we sit or stand or kneel, how we listen to the Word of God (or if we are readers, how we are proclaiming the Word - with devotion, with clarity, intelligibly?).

During the Eucharist Jesus says: "This is my body." In a very real way, we also say to Jesus: "This is my body which I use to worship You in Spirit and in Truth."

As I sit here and share these reflections with you, I find that spontaneously a prayer of St. Ignatius of Loyola comes to mind: "Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, and my entire will, all that I have and possess. You have given it all to me. To you, O Lord, I return it. All is yours, dispose of it wholly according to your will. Give me your love and your grace for this is sufficient for me."

Father Bob Grib, S.J.
RCIA Moderator

Saying "Yes"

This Thursday, March 25th is the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord. Nine months before Christmas the church commemorates the angel Gabriel's appearance to Mary at Nazareth. The Church celebrates Mary's saying "yes" to God's invitation to be the mother of Jesus and the subsequent incarnation of Jesus in Mary's womb by the power of the Holy Spirit. One of the things we learn from reflecting on Mary is that she understood that God can do infinitely more with us and through us when we say "yes" than if we say "no".

The truth should not be lost on us that the birth of Jesus was made possible by a young girl's trust in God's goodness and love even when she may have been overwhelmed by what God asked of her. The truth is that every child's birth begins with a mother saying "yes"; "yes" to welcoming a new life from God, "yes" to her own life being forever changed by the child she carries in her womb. This Thursday, let us pray for generous hearts, that God's invitation to parenthood may be met with love, trust and a "yes" to sharing life.

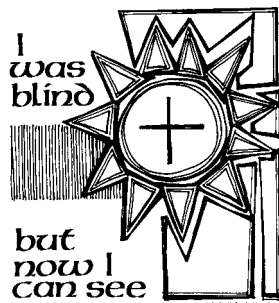

Father Mike McGovern

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today, "Laetare Sunday," breaks the somberness of Lent for a little rejoicing, and the readings all summon us to an awareness of reconciliation. One of the best-loved stories of our tradition is today's Gospel story of the runaway son and the prodigal father. Prodigal, of course, is an adjective meaning "spendthrift or extravagant to a degree bordering on recklessness," and although the boy maxes out the credit cards, it is really the father who is prodigal with forgiveness.

Part of the excitement of this Laetare Sunday is rooted in the ancient catechumenate. Long ago, midway through Lent, the "Elect" were focusing more and more on the gift of reconciliation accomplished for them by Christ and about to be realized in the Easter sacraments they were preparing to celebrate. In some places, the Elect were even bedecked with roses on this day. A person bedecked with roses sticks out in a crowd; a person formed by the Eucharist and committed to living a life of reconciliation does, too. That's you!

Fourth Sunday of Lent - "Remain In My Love"

Jesus tells the story of the forgiving father. The father's younger son takes his inheritance, moves from the family farm into the city where he spends all his money on wild living. The young man ends up in a pitiable state, taking a job feeding pigs, desperately hungry, but not even allowed by his masters to eat any of the food that he feeds to their pigs. Coming to his senses, he returns home and begs his father's forgiveness. The father, who has never stopped loving his younger son, throws a party to celebrate.

The father's older son is furious. After all, he has stayed at home and worked on the farm. "For years I have slaved for you," he complains. Although he has done the right thing, he resents it.

The father's love for his older son is clear too. "Everything I have is yours," he says. "But your brother has been lost to us and is now found. So of course, we have to celebrate."

The father in Jesus' story, of course, is our generous Father in heaven, who loves us all, who is willing to forgive everyone who asks for his forgiveness.

Living the Word: Pray: "Father, in this Lenten season of growing, help me to be generous with my forgiveness. Give me the humility to ask for your forgiveness and for the forgiveness of all those whom I have offended."

The St. Joseph Table

According to legend, the St. Joseph Table originated in Sicily several centuries ago during a period of severe drought and famine. The people were starving and all they could grow were fava beans. In desperation they prayed to St. Joseph, the protector of the Holy Family. He answered their prayers by sending good rains and an abundant harvest to end the famine. To thank and honor St. Joseph, the people built altars consisting of grains, fruits, vegetables, seafood and wine. The food was served to the poor and shared to prayer and festivity. As the Italian people migrated to the New World, they brought with them their unique and beautiful tradition that is carried on in homes and churches throughout the United States today.

St. Juliana Parish is hosting its annual St. Joseph Table on this Sunday, March 21st from 1:00 pm until 4:30 pm. Last year our table fed over 700 people and all surplus food was taken to feed the poor.

The St. Joseph Table is based on donations of meatless dishes such as: fish, lasagna, ravioli, eggplant parmesan, gnocchi verdi, pizza, fried vegetables, manicotti, various pastries (cakes, cookies) and many specialty recipes.

Avon Walk For Breast

Cancer...As you may know, I am a 5th grade teacher at St. Juliana and I have accepted the challenge of participating in the Avon Walk for Breast Cancer.

I am eager to get started with my fundraising and I need your support! I have pledged to raise money for the Avon Walk for Breast Cancer as part of my participation in the walk. Your contribution will help to support medical research into the possible causes of and cure for breast cancer, education and early detection programs, and clinical care and support services for women with breast cancer in communities across the country.

It is faster and easier than ever to support this great cause - you can make a donation online. Whatever you can give will help! I truly appreciate your support and will keep you posted on my progress. Thank you!

4th Grade Happenings

During these past several months the fourth grade has been very busy. They have been learning long division in Math, used Inspiration software in the computer lab to complete a Science project on the Water Cycle, and learned about the history, landforms, and climate of the Northeast Region of the United States.

Some of the fourth grade classes have reached out to others by collecting gifts of toys and clothes for needy pre-schoolers, and sending valentines to the veterans at Hines Hospital. Their kindness was rewarded with a thank you note from the veteran's hospital and paper mache air balloons filled with M & M's from the pre-schoolers for Valentine's Day.

The fourth grade classrooms are beginning to show signs that Spring is arriving with flowers on the windows, shamrocks on the doors, and butterflies carrying the children's Lenten promises. The children are working hard to prepare for their First Reconciliation on March 23rd, as well as tuning their voices to participate in the Spring Musical "Honk" on March 30th. With the approach of Easter, the children are creating shoe box dioramas of the Stations of the Cross, saving their pennies for our Rice Bowl mission in school, and will donate small Easter goodies to fill a basket for a needy child.

Life in the fourth grade is filled with new learning experiences, fun times, and the opportunity to reach out to others. We are looking forward with excitement to the new adventures ahead.

Storytelling Duo Entertains Students at St. Juliana School

A special treat for the students of St. Juliana School was the appearance of the husband and wife storytelling team Jim and Karen Decker, "The Double Deckers". On Wednesday, March 10, 2004 the storytelling duo entertained the students with a participation story "A Bad Case of Stripes" by David Shannon, a humorous story "Froggy Gets Dressed" by Jonathan London, and a ghost story by Mary Downing Hahn and many more.

Tandem storytelling is the specialty of Jim and Karen Decker and their lively animated banter keeps the audience engaged. The Double Deckers have appeared in libraries in many of the Chicagoland suburbs and also in neighboring states. They also have participated in storytelling festivals in Illinois, Minnesota, Indiana, Kentucky, and Iowa.

"I liked the way the way that they were able to play different characters." said seventh grader Courtney Guzik. Kindergartener Clair Broderick said that she especially like the Froggy story when Froggy forgets his underwear. "The Double Deckers" were like having your favorite aunt and uncle or grandparents in your living room telling you stories!" remarked Kindergarten teacher Mrs. Gallian. Students from Junior High to Pre-school provided a morning filled with laughter thanks to the talents of the Double Deckers.

Volunteer Appreciation Dinner

St. Juliana School Hall was the setting for the annual Volunteer Appreciation Dinner on March 11, 2004. This year's theme was "Volunteers Bring New Life to Our School". The room was decorated with paper butterflies decorated by the students. The butterflies symbolize new life that comes with spring and the energizing life that the volunteers bring to the school.

The volunteer dinner was hosted by the administration, faculty, and staff of St. Juliana School. The buffet dinner was a smorgasbord of salads, vegetables, and desserts prepared by the teachers and staff along with lemon chicken from Incredible Edibles. Second grade teacher Eileen Cahill wrote the lyrics for "We Love You Volunteers" which was sung by the faculty of St. Juliana School. All the volunteer guests and teachers played the "Volunteer Questionnaire" game. Working with a list of the many volunteer roles, the dinner guests were challenged to find a volunteer or a teacher who had worked on each specific project. This was a perfect opportunity for all those attending to get to know each other. Everyone had a great time trying to be the first to complete their questionnaire.

After dinner, Mrs. Kathleen Barton, principal of St. Juliana School, thanked the volunteers for all their many contributions of time and talent. She stated, "We appreciate the love and dedication our volunteers share with us. They bring life to our school in the same way butterflies bring life and beauty to our world."

The volunteers who attended the March 11th dinner were Jeanne Anderson, Katy and Wally Antosz, Debbie Babich, MaryBeth Balcarcel, Jeanne Barr, Christine Boldt, Bernie Boratyn, Barb Bosak, Mariana Burgos, Mary Bryne, Jodie Canova, Anne Cisneroz, Lisa Conte, Kim Conway, Toni Coughlin, Gina Cravens, Cathy DeLuca, Marie Dolan, Jennifer Donlin, Barbara Donnelly, Terri Doremus, Una Durkan, Ann Ellingsen, Jill Elliott, Jennifer Emery, Chris Emery, Cindy Epanio, Susan Fegan, Kathy Flynn, Debbie Ganey, Lori Gatta, Kathy Gavin, Beth Gawlinski, Lynn Gibbons, Laura Gustaitis, Jill Hackett, Mary Heinz, Natalie Hennigan, Helen Heylin, Heidi Hihn, Diane Holmen, Heidi Jimenez, Mary and John Kopolnek, Mary Kulinski, Anne Lappe, Patty Lewandowski, Marcy Liberty, Mary Jo LoBianco, Traci Lodding, Sharon Lord, Liz Martin, Kathy McCormack, Pat McGlenn, Mary Mendoza, Julie Montague, Kathy Moran, Linda Mulkerin, Margaret Mulroe, Rosie Nock, Noreen O'Grady, Patty O'Malley, Heide O'Shaughnessy, Michele Panico, Joe and Nikki Paplaczyk, Julie Pellegrino, Tammy and Dan Pritt, Eileen Rahlfs, Barb Rajkovich, Morgan Ryan, Mary Sajenko, Leida and Miguel Santiago, Joni Sharkey, Barb Sherman, Mimi Simon, Susan Smolinski, Maureen Stauffer, Jean Staunton, Todd Steffen, Jennifer Sterling, Robyn Suarez, Mary Sugrue, Karen Tannehill, Jerri Toomey, Sonia Torres, Patricia Trevino, Mary Udelhofen, Sue Vasilic, Jennifer Welch, Eileen Wittenberg, Charlotte Yankowski and Annette Zaccagnini.
