Father Phil's Ramblings

EASTER SUNDAY "2004"

The purchase of new clothing has been associated with Easter from its earliest days. The new converts to Catholicism set aside their old garments as a symbol of setting aside their former way of life. Then they were plunged into a pool of Baptism and upon emerging they were attired in new white garments as a sign of new life in Christ.

Hence, throughout the centuries, followers of Jesus have donned new "Easter Outfits" as a sign of renewal. However—being human—we often have other motives as well. Vanity. Outdoing Mrs. Smith. Attracting attention.

Clothes have a language of their own. For example, our school children wear their uniforms to let everyone know that they attend St. Juliana School. Teen-agers have always had "uniforms" - the greasers, Ivy Leaguers, and nerds of the past; the grunge, goth and skinheads of the present. We even have "black-tie" invitations, to alert us to a dress code.

On a far deeper level, Easter urges us to move beyond the superficial and, whatever we wear, to "put on a new person in Christ Jesus, our Risen Lord".

May the PEACE, the LOVE and the JOY of EASTER be with you and your families.

Father Phil Dressler

EASTER ENERGY

On Easter morning when the disciples saw the evidence of the Resurrection, they did not at first grasp it. John reports that "they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead." We, on the other hand, have both Scripture and Church tradition to teach us. Jesus Christ's resurrection is at the core of our Christian faith.

All of today's readings tell us how compelling this event was for the first Christians. There is great energy in all the readings. Peter preaches with authority and conviction. Paul calls for Christians to change their lives. In the Gospel reading we see Peter and John in a footrace to reach Jesus' tomb and see with their own eyes the evidence that they still could not understand or completely believe.

How can some of this Easter energy be restored to us today? Do we let the astonishing news of the Resurrection touch us now? Does it call us to action? To deeper faith? To conversion? What new life will be reborn in us and our parish community this Easter morning?

Misericordia - Heart of Mercy "Candy Days" Friday, April 30th & Saturday, May 1st

Volunteers are needed in Edison Park for Misericordia's annual "Candy Days".

The Brennan family is always grateful for any time you are able to give. Ask a friend to volunteer with you - it's fun and so worthwhile.

Call parishioners Jack and Cindy Brennan at 773.631.2771 to volunteer for this wonderful day of service.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over the centuries, the Church has demonstrated a wonderful ability to adopt a culture's favorite symbols and customs and assign them new meaning. Easter eggs have a very ancient pedigree: nature's perfect package, emblem of new life, dyed and decorated and given as gifts in ancient Egypt, Rome, China, and Persia. Just as the long hard winter is over, the egg bursts with promise of life and nourishment. Long ago, Christians came to see the egg not as a symbol of spring's rebirth, but of ours, and as a sign of Christ's tomb. A Polish legend says that Mary, in compassion for the soldiers at the cross, gave them eggs, but that her tears stained their shells with brilliant color. Legends have their origin in tales told around a hearth, but they often contain a profound truth. The idea of Mary, the first Christian, engaged in a merciful act of forgiveness and tenderness even in the shadow of the cross, describes the age-old wish that Christ "Easter in us."
