Misericordia & Brennan Family Thanks You

Jack, Cindy, Ryan, Colin, Conor and Megan Brennan would like to thank all who weathered the cold and rain last weekend to help raise money for Misericordia.

Brennan's corner (Oliphant & N.W. Hwy.) always does well thanks to the generosity of all who volunteer and donate.

The weather did not cooperate but as always our St. Juliana Parish Family did!

The Golden Wedding Anniversary Mass will be held on Sunday, October 3rd at 2:30 p.m. at Holy Name Cathedral, 751 N. State St., Chicago.

Couples married in 1954 who are interested in attending this celebration should contact their parish to register.

For further information call the Family Ministries Office at (312) 751-8351 or visit the website: www.familyministries.org.

Father Phil's Ramblings

A New Commandment

Jesus said at the Last Supper, "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another." A new commandment? Was this really a NEW commandment? Hardly. It was ancient, and prominent in the Jewish tradition. We can find it verbatim in the Book of Leviticus. So, one may ask, what makes loving one another so new?

The 'new' commandment is to love one another as Jesus loved His friends. Not only this, but Jesus said obedience to the new commandment was how his disciples -- his friends -- would be recognized in the world. By this, everyone will know that we are Jesus' followers; if we have love for one another.

We are not to be known by our spirituality, nor our piety, and certainly not by our superior knowledge. We are to be recognized by the way we love. Have you experienced how transforming it is to be loved by someone with no hidden agenda and without self-interest, simply because you are you?

That transformation is the essence of love. That person could be a spouse. How often has a husband or wife who have been married for many years say: My spouse is my best friend, with whom I can be at my worst and still know that I am loved. That's the new commandment!

In the crazy and confused world in which we live, when someone really hears and obeys the NEW commandment to love one another as Jesus loved, it really does become a NEW commandment. If we can really touch ONE person with that kind of love, and transform that person, our lives will be considered great in God's eyes.

May we truly live the NEW commandment!

Mother's Day Flower Sale

The Women's Center will sell Mother's Day flowers after the Masses this Saturday, May 8th and Sunday, May 9th. Beautiful roses, carnations and mixed floral bouquets will be available. Proceeds from this event benefit the Women's Center crisis pregnancy counseling offices, whose work saves more than 1600 babies from abortion each year and provides material goods assistance and social referral services to needy mothers and families.

Days of Obligation?

Since when is Ascension Thursday on a Sunday? Several years ago the bishops of Illinois agreed that the Ascension of the Lord, normally celebrated on the fortieth day after Easter, should be transferred to the Seventh Sunday of Easter. Why? Because over the past decade mass attendance on Holy Days of Obligation has steadily decreased and the bishops reasoned that the mystery of the Lord's Ascension is too important to be overlooked. They thought it better to transfer the mass and scripture readings to the nearest Sunday when more Catholics are in church.

While I understand the bishops' reasoning, I also regret the transfer of the solemnity to a Sunday. Why? Because I believe we are steadily losing a sense that joy can interrupt our schedules, plans, and calendars. Holy Days of Obligation traditionally require the reorganizing of our work and school schedules in order to attend mass. We do so because we believe that the mystery of God is not limited to one day per week. Praising and worshipping God is something I not only do in my private time on Sunday morning, but is part of my daily life with certain high points such as holy days. Seeing thousands of workers in the Chicago Loop swimming against the tide of commerce in order to attend mass at one of the downtown churches on a holy day says something to us (and the world) about the priority of God in life at all times.

Josef Pieper in his book "In Tune With the World" noted how western society is losing a sense of festival and has to reestablish time for public religious ritual praise of God. I agree with Pieper's concern especially when we live in a society which pushes religion more and more from the center of the public square into a corner. I would be interested in your thoughts or suggestions about how we can better observe holy days or suggestions for how individuals and families can make more of the Ascension of the Lord this year. Please contact me and I'll include some suggestions in next week's bulletin.

Have a good week.

THE WAYS OF LOVE

One can feel the energy of a young, growing Church in today's first reading. For Paul and Barnabas, it's smooth sailing. For the sponsoring church at Antioch, good news. The second reading--a vision--offers a picture of triumph, pure and simple. We might paraphrase God's direct words to read: "Don't you see? I make all things new!"

The young Church remains new and young to this day if and when it follows the command Jesus lays down in the Gospel: "Love one another." The attitude and actions of love define the disciples and identify them with their master. Every person on this earth can be a disciple. For discipleship does not depend on learning or sophistication or age or arcane knowledge of secret cults. We are asked to study and practice the ways of love, right here and right now in the company of ordinary people.

98 young people from our St. Juliana Parish community were confirmed this past Thursday evening by Bishop Francis Kane. Here are some of their thoughts about the reception of the sacrament of Confirmation.

Bridget Callaghan: I would like to be confirmed because I want to receive the Holy Spirit and get to know Jesus better. I also would like to receive the 7 Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Another thing is I want to become a fully initiated member of the Church. Being a member of the Church I think I can get to know God better.

Eric Smith: I want to be confirmed because I want to receive the Holy Spirit. That way I can be an adult Christian and practice my religion a lot more.

Mary Fran Draths: I want to be confirmed because I want to continue being Catholic. Also, I would like to have more responsibility for my religion, and this will bring me closer to this. I want to be closer to the Holy Spirit.

Kelly Short: I want to be confirmed because I want to receive the Holy Spirit. I also want to be a bigger part of God and the Church.

Candace Wrzesinski: I want to receive my Confirmation this year because I want to receive the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit and to know more about them. Also, I want to be making my own decisions and making the right choices. I want to become a better Christian and become a better member of the Church.

Jim Neenan: Why I want to be confirmed? Well, there are a lot of reasons, but for one, I want to be accepted into the Catholic Church. For another, I am a strong believer in the Catholic religion and would like to receive the Holy Spirit.

Renee Nelson: I want to be confirmed for many reasons. One of these reasons is to complete my membership. I want to learn to be more responsible and to make wise decisions. Also, I want the Holy Spirit to guide me. I also think that I will be able to use the seven gifts.

Dominic DiBiao: I want to be confirmed because I feel it is time for me to take on more responsibility and become a more independent member of the Church.

Mary Kate Mulroe: I want to make my Confirmation because I want to become closer to God. I want to become a better Christian. I think being confirmed will help me to have more courage and make me more responsible.

Jenny Mueller: I want to be confirmed so that I can be closer to God and to know Him a little bit better. I can also get a chance to learn about the many gifts and focus on how to use them.

Maureen Costello: I want to be confirmed because I want to become closer to God and the Holy Spirit. Also, the gifts of the Holy Spirit are very important to me. Being confirmed will also bring me one step further in my faith.

Matthew Scheler: I want to be confirmed because when I was a very young child I was baptized. Now I want to prove to the world that I am a proven Christian. By making my Confirmation I will gain the 7 Gifts of the Holy Spirit and improve my relationship with God and others which I want to do.

Daniel Dziubinski: I want to be confirmed because I believe in the Catholic religion and find it important to be a fully initiated member. Also, this seems to bring more responsibility that I think I'm ready for.

Mike Finnegan: I want to be confirmed because this is my religion and I want to be noticed in the Church as a young adult. I want to be confirmed because my parents and most of my family is confirmed and I believe in my religion.

Meghan Holy: I want to be confirmed because I want to receive the Holy Spirit. Receiving the Holy spirit will help me to make the right choices in tough decisions. Also, I want to be closer to God. Receiving my Confirmation is very important to me because it shows me that I'm entering the adulthood in our Church.

Margaret Nolan: The reason I wish to be confirmed is to become closer to God. Not only this, but we receive many gifts to be proud and thankful for. This will improve our faith in the Catholic religion and what our religion means to us.

Brian Collins: I want to receive my Confirmation because I will receive the Holy Spirit. If I receive Confirmation, I have received all the sacraments of Initiation and I will become a member of the Church. I also want to receive the 7 gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Colleen Klumak: I want to make my Confirmation because I want to be truly accepted into the Church. I want to be a part of Jesus, following his footsteps, to become someone who will always have Jesus in my life that I can talk to and pray to, and be forgiven by.

Dan Balcarcel: There are many reasons for me wanting to be confirmed. One reason is that I want to receive the Holy Spirit. I also want to receive the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. These gifts will help me to live a holy and Christian life.

Michelle Jaworski: My Confirmation means that I am learning more about Jesus and becoming a complete Catholic. It is a special experience I will go through to becoming an adult. I am learning about the importance of the sacraments and the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Austin Travers: I want to receive the sacrament of Confirmation because I want others to know I am mature enough to make my own decisions about doing right or wrong, and I want to learn to use my decisions like an adult member of the Church.

Jaclyn Burke: I want to be confirmed because I want to become part of the Holy Spirit. I want to be accepted into the Church as an adult. Finally, I want to confirm what I believe.

Joe Rau: I want to be confirmed because I want to be recognized as a Christian like my Mom and Dad. I want everyone to know that I am Catholic. It is very important to me. I really want to be a part of the Catholic Church.

Franny Flood: I want to be confirmed so I can complete my membership in the Church, and so that I can share my God-given talents/gifts with others (put to good use). I also want to receive the Gifts of the Holy Spirit so I will live my life well, how God wants me. Being confirmed will help me better understand my faith. These are just a few reasons I want to be confirmed.

Happy Mother's Day

A Mother's Legacy

What legacy will you leave for others to remember? Will it be your housekeeping talents, your job skills, your money, your kind heart and sweet spirit; or will it be your sincere faith in Jesus Christ?

It was noted, by the apostle Paul, that Timothy had a sincere faith in Christ. Where did it come from? His grandmother and his mother each manifested the love of Christ in their lives. Faith is not inherited it is taught. Children often learn things by observing the behavior and speech of others. They desire to emulate their parents. What we are, is what they will become.

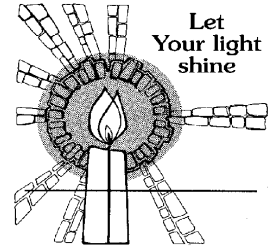

Therefore, it is necessary that we, as mothers, make certain our children are looking at the right things about us. Mothers are human and prone to mistakes. Let's not let our mistakes get in the way. We must point our children to the Savior, Jesus Christ and teach them of His love, not only by the words we speak, but by our attitudes and actions in every situation of life. Only then, will they see the truth of the gospel we preach with our lips.

Our most important job in life is not cleaning the house, or contributing financially to the family. It's helping our children to understand and know God in a deep and personal way. No amount of money can begin to compare with the intimate, satisfying relationship they will have with Jesus Christ. Take some time today and pray for and with your children. Let them know you love them and there is someone who lives them even more that you do - the Lord Jesus.

Honoring Our Dedicated Parent Volunteers

St. Juliana Cub Scout Pack 3965 boasts an enrollment of 70 Boys from 1st grade through 5th grade. The Cubs enjoy many enriching and fun activities, from learning about world conservation to a day at a water park. The Cub Scout program at St. Juliana could not function without the dedication and commitment of so many parents who give their time, energy and resources. The list below represents parents who have served as leaders, committee members, and representatives in the past year and parents who have agreed to serve in those capacities in the coming year. Our parish and the Cub Scout Program is blessed to honor:
