*Father Phil's RamblingsLent: A Journey of Love!

On this first Sunday of Lent, we need to spend time asking God how we should spend Lent 2005.

We all have a fairly stock file of resolutions in the back of our minds-- an "oughta do list," from which we may draw our annual Lenten resolution. We may have already begun to keep our resolution this past Ash Wednesday, or we may still be considering whether to make a Lenten promise this year. Or, we may already broken our chosen resolution. Well, begin again, or begin if you have not, because Lent is a journey of love.

Perhaps we would do better to put those resolutions and promises aside for now, and find out what God has in mind for us. There might be some surprises!

Jesus took his friends up a mountain by themselves to pray. Put yourself on that mountain with Jesus. It is peaceful, with a wonderful view in all directions, and plenty of time to be alone, one-to-one with the Lord. Jesus is asking each of us to make a journey with Him, a journey to the cross and also to new life, a journey of love. Lent is that time for each of us. The rules and regulations have been reduced, so to speak, but the journey -- hopefully -- becomes a more free and loving experience. The Lenten Season is not meant to be a time of how much we can suffer by doing penance and "giving up things." Lent is a season when we can grow in love of a God whose love has no bounds. A love that is reflected by Jesus' journey to Jerusalem -- a journey to his death and resurrection.

We are asked to make the journey with the Lord. In our busy lives, we are asked to walk with the Lord. I offer a Lenten "suggestion" as you begin this season of Lent, which should be a journey of love.

Each day during Lent, write a love letter to a friend, a relative, an employee or an employer. Tell that person that you truly appreciate and are grateful for his or her talents. The letter need not be long, maybe just a few sentences, maybe even longer if it's someone whom you especially love, such as your spouse or your children.

Take the time to write the letter and take the time to see that it is delivered; mail it, email it, or hand-carry it -- but make sure it finds its destination. Lent can truly be a journey of love -- a journey of affirmation -- a journey of joy.

If you have not made your "plans" for Lent yet, try my suggestion. Whatever you decide to do, do it freely with love in your hearts, because Lent is a season of love!

“Then The Eyes Of Them Were Opened...”

Serpent: “If you eat this fruit, you certainly will not die, kiddo! No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it, your eyes will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil.”

Earth-people: “ Hey! That would really be neat! How much is that fruit by the pound? Do you take credit cards?”

Serpent: “No sweat, kids. Here. Eat up.”

Earth-people: “Omigosh!! Really tasty!”

(After about 15 seconds)

Earth-people: “EEEEEEEEEEEEEEK!!

It was God’s final gift to His newly formed creatures: THE POWER TO DISCERN. The recognition that they were naked was the realization that God had indeed made them like Him/Herself. They would not be victims of the circumstances surrounding their lives, but would be able to discern how best to cope with this mystery of life.

Look what happens when they experience this new-found awareness which likens them to God. They do not fall to the ground sobbing, helpless, unable to understand what is to be done. Rather: “Then the eyes of both of them were opened and they realized that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.”

“You will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil.” “You will be like GOD!” And so we are! In his first letter, John, the beloved disciple of Jesus writes: “See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are...Beloved, we are God’s children now: it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when He appears we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.” (1 Jn.3)

In our very ability to discern good and evil we shall prove ourselves children of God - LIKE GOD! The person who forfeits her/his power to discern good from evil forfeits her/his God-likeness, God-life. God did not condemn humans to lives wherein they would be at the mercy of good or evil. Or worse, incapable of recognizing either one in their human experience. The recognition of what is good and what is evil would give rise to the necessity of choosing - not the inevitability of choosing one or the other, but the freedom to choose, the freedom to be like God and choose good, consistently, powerfully, unequivocally.

And like God our freedom to choose the good emanates from the Source of our Being - LOVE. Where there is Love, there are good choices. Where there is social, political or personal expediency, there choices lie in shadow. Thank God we have the power to discern. Probably the “original” and “perennial” sin is the refusal to discern good from evil, to just let the media, the moguls of fashion, the purveyors of hard and soft porn, the film makers do what they think is best for us all - $$$$!

Perhaps the real sin would have been for the original earth-people to just throw their hands up in despair and not even attempt to discern good from evil.

Father Bob Grib, S.J. - RCIA Moderator

First Sunday of Lent
"Be Reconciled"

In our Liturgy today we are invited to make a choice; a choice between God and evil, between being loving and being selfish. This first Sunday of Lent challenges us to do battle with our sinfulness and our weakness, and to walk faithfully with God toward the new life of Easter.

Action Plan This Week

1. Take some time alone to reflect on the meaning of Lent.
2. Practice some form of self denial in the coming days.
3. Pray about how you face your temptations and how you deal with them.

We are in need of glass baby food jars (numbers 2 & 3) for First Reconciliation.

Thank you for your help.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In a few weeks' time, at the chrism Mass of the diocese, fresh sacramental oils will be blessed and chrism consecrated for use in every parish. Olive oil is the main ingredient of chrism, but olive oil with some exotic additives that change its character and purpose. Rich balsam and perfumes separate chrism from the pantry. Food no longer, neither is this oil for grooming or toning muscles. It has a breathtaking aroma that is both alluring and enduring.

The prayer of consecration is a good Lenten meditation since it focuses us on the goal of our journey, linking it with the olive-bearing dove at the end of Noah's stormy voyage of forty days. The dove signaled the birth of a new world, a society reborn from the wreckage of the old, drowned world of sin. At the end of our Lenten journey, the oil of chrism will be poured down in abundance on the brows of catechumens and infants, as well as on those to be confirmed or ordained. Lent puts us in touch with the hard edges of life in need of salvation, and the chrism of Easter joy redeems and restores.
