PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT

The St. Juliana Parish Pastoral Council is an enthusiastic, compassionate, faith-filled community participating in the ministry of the Church.

We are witnesses of the Good News, and through example and prayer we live the Gospel message.

Through active listening we strive to determine and understand the diverse needs of our parish and community. We minister to these needs by inviting and empowering others to become involved in meeting the spiritual, temporal and social needs of all.

We partner with the Pastor and Staff to support existing parish life, to create vision, and to plan for the future.

GIVING OF ONESELF

Scientists have recently begun to discuss the idea that the primary force behind all life in the universe is self-gift. This is how everything from galaxies to human babies are born and sustained.

If we read the opening of today's passage from Isaiah correctly, we see that he anticipated twentieth-century scientists by over twenty five hundred years. Using the self-giving example of the rain and snow clouds that water the earth that then yields fruit, which in turn is given over to nourish creatures, Isaiah leads us to understand that the primary force behind all life is the word of God. The ultimate giving of that word, we believe, was Jesus Christ, who, in the greatest revelation of divine love, gave of himself on the cross.

To what degree are we in touch with that self-giving God in whose image we are made? To what extent do we really follow the self-giving example of Christ into whose death and resurrection we were baptized, whose ultimate self-gift we celebrate every week in the Eucharist? With God's help, our lives can be like Isaiah's rain and snow, and we will not return to heaven until we have done our part to make the earth fruitful.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Charlemagne, crowned Holy Roman Emperor on Christmas Day, 800, had a major interest in shaping the worship life of the church, and began a long period of reform and regulation. We owe many confirmation policies and practices to his rule. A baptized person was required to be confirmed as soon as the bishop's presence made it possible. Priests were expected to do their best in seeing to it that a newly-baptized child received the Eucharist. One twelfth-century ritual insists that if the child is not yet capable of eating or drinking, then the priest might give him or her some of the Precious Blood on a leaf or a finger.

Despite the best efforts of the Empire to hold liturgical life together, the rules were not always lived out with great beauty. St. Richard of Chichester of thirteenth-century England, for example, was canonized for his holy life as a bishop. One of the remarkable signs of his sanctity was his willingness to climb down from his horse to confirm "merely baptized" layfolk who crossed his path! This praiseworthy practice points a finger of blame at less zealous bishops, whose casual attitudes revealed a sacrament in need of rescue.

“Some Seed Fell On The Path...Some Fell On Rocky Ground...
Some Fell Among Thorns...
But Some Seed Fell On Rich Soil and Bore Fruit”

Keep it short, Father; I have a golf date today...It's really hot, Father, in St. Joseph Podsidewaldim Parish the priests finish the Mass in 40 minutes on Sunday; no fancy frills...Father, when you go on too long, my kids start getting 'antsy;' have a little pity on us parents, huh?...It's a lovely day, Father; please use that short Eucharistic Prayer, O.K.?"

Now fast-food places like Wendy's or McDonald's are great ideas for a culture which ordinarily doesn't have time for leisurely lunches - unless, of course, you're entertaining a prospective client! But I don't think food was intended to be taken "on the run," as it were. Today's market for antacids and other quick-relief options, not to mention high-potency drugs obtainable only by prescription for the relief of such newly described ailments as "acid reflux" seems to point to the fact that we have forgotten how to eat healthily.

In all cultures the "meal" is a sacred activity. Have I told you the story of the thief in India who, while absconding from the police, ran to his own home. He quickly instructed his wife to prepare a meal for him and serve it to him as slowly as possible. When the police, huffing and puffing, arrived at the thief's home, they found the man seated cross-legged in front of some dishes of food being served by the thief's wife.

"Damn!" said the police, "now we'll have to wait until he's finished eating!" In an Eastern Context, once a person has sat down to eat, it would be the height of impropriety to expect him/her to arise for any reason whatsoever. The police sat outside and waited. Inside, the thief instructed his wife to bring the various dishes slowly, oooh so slowly. As it turned out, the meal dragged on so long that the policemen fell asleep. At a signal from his wife, the thief, now well fed and rested, ran from his home and escaped the police.

I got into the middle of the story and wondered: "So what's the point, Bob?" I guess I'm trying to point out the fact the "meals" - be they Eucharistic or otherwise, were intended to be celebrations of trust and friendship. You set aside your weapons, verbal or otherwise, and recline at the table. The Passover meal for the Israelites was to be taken standing and girded for travel because the "Lord will pass-over" and deliver the Israelites. But normally the meal was taken in a reclining posture. In such a posture, it is necessary that the heart "recline" also. We go expecting sustenance for the soul as well as the body.

People do not go to a wedding reception thinking: "Oh hell! I wonder how long this is going to last!" On the contrary! We go expecting to have a good time, meet friends, celebrate family. We might even tell a relative overly concerned about time: "Then don't go in my car, because I intend to stay until the end."

Thank heaven we have not yet come up with a "Drive-by Eucharist." I should not have to mention that, no? Someone will get ideas...

Vacation Bible School

July 25th through July 29th

Vacation Bible School will be held July 25th through July 29th, from 9:00 am until Noon. Children ages 4 through 9 are eligible to participate.

The fee is $40 for the first child and $15 for each additional child. Registration forms are available in back of church and in the parish office.

Vacation Bible School fills up quickly, so please return your registration form to the parish office as soon as possible. Early registrations show if there is a need to order more supplies and will eliminate turning away any child.

On another note, we would not be able to host Vacation Bible School without the adults who volunteer to work with the children. This year we are in need of more adult volunteers. If you would be willing to help, please call Joyce Browne at 773.631.4127.
