Observe what is right, do what is just; for my salvation is about to come, my justice, about to be revealed.

On Monday, August 15th we will celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of Mary which is a holyday, but not one of obligation this year. Masses will be at 7:00 am and 8:45 am in the Church.

One way to celebrate this special feast and honor the Blessed Virgin is to place fresh flowers in front of her altar. We invite parishioners attending Mass this weekend and August 15th to bring flowers to Church and place them in one of the many vases near the statue of Mary.

This wonderful St. Juliana Parish tradition is such a beautiful sight and also provides a beautiful fragrance throughout the Church.

Father Phil's Ramblings

I always have a problem with today's Gospel story, the encounter of the Canaanite woman and Jesus. Maybe you do, too! The exchange between the woman, a gentile, and Jesus seems at first to support the traditional hostility of the Jews toward all gentiles.

Yes, there is persistence on the woman's part even after Jesus tells her that He was sent for the lost sheep of the house of Israel. The woman persists and says, "Lord, help me." The dialogue continues, seemingly in a rather harsh and cruel way when Jesus refers to the woman as a dog. Imagine if you called a person, a dog. We have many harsh, cruel and ugly words that we use to describe someone's ethnicity, race or culture. Probably just as cruel and ugly as calling someone a dog in Jesus' day.

So what does Jesus mean when he utters that nasty epithet? It is almost impossible to interpret this Gospel story accurately unless we credit Jesus with a sense of humor. Here is where the story -- the dialogue between the woman and Jesus -- lightens up.

Jesus says, "Let the children first be fed, for it is not right to throw good food to the dogs." The woman's response is refreshing indeed: "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the droppings from the children's crumbs." The woman's persistence and her faith were gifts that touched Jesus' heart. If only we had such great faith and were equally persistent in our prayer life. The entire exchange between Jesus and the gentile woman was prayer.

May we pray with faith, with persistence and with a sense of humor, as the woman did in her encounter with Jesus.

CCD Classes 2005/2006

Registration for CCD classes for 2005/2006 is now taking place.

Our CCD Program meets on Wednesday evenings from 6:45 until 8:00 pm, beginning in mid September and running through mid May. Classes are available to registered parishioners who have students attending a public/private school or home-schooled in grades 1 through 8. The fee for our program is: $135 for 1 child; $175 for 2 children; $205 for 3 or more children.

If you are interested in registering your child/children for our program or need more information, please call Pam Francisco at the Religious Education Office at 773.631.2239.

Canaanite woman: "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon."

Jesus: Jesus did not say a word.

Canaanite woman: "Have pity on me, Lord!"

Jesus: "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house O Israel."

Canaanite woman: "Lord, help me!"

Jesus: "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs."

Canaanite woman: "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters."

Jesus: "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish."

Sometimes we think of Jesus as having this special divine cache of knowledge which provided Him with direction and inspiration during His human life. Yes, He was conceived by the Holy Spirit. But He was, as we profess, born of the Virgin Mary, a girl "from our side," as we might say.

Jesus, like us, had to learn what it was to be Who He was. Sound confusing? It must have been for Jesus too. Jesus was not some sort of divine automaton, programmed to do and say divine things in the guise of a human personality. Jesus had to come to a gradual self-awareness of the Mystery of His Person. That self-awareness was mediated through His human body, brain and the experiences which made Him Jesus of Nazareth.

It took years of prayer and personal enquiry, years of study of His Jewish traditions and the role of God in the life of His people. All this was assimilated into His own Personal Consciousness which was not just a "given" but was "formed" by innumerable influences.

We might speak of "the Spirit being at work in Him." Where the Spirit moves and lives, there is growth and deepening. Jesus Himself experienced that - as do we. Sometimes it is startling to hear people refer to "what we were taught in School" when they are confronted with the teachings and insights of Vatican II. Jesus also was "taught" by Mary, Joseph, His family, His Jewish tradition, etc. But the Spirit of God took Jesus into Mysteries which may have challenged Him or even frightened Him. Someone once wrote: "It is a frightening thing to fall into the hands of the living God!"

Is it possible that Jesus began slowly to realize that God's will to save went far beyond the borders of Jesus' own Jewish religious traditions: that He Himself had been sent not solely to the people of Israel but to the Canaanites and Samaritans as well - to the Romans - to all people of good will? And, strange to say: to all people of bad will as well!

And we? In what direction will the Spirit of God, the Spirit of Jesus, lead us - lead me? Like Jesus, we must grow in the realization of the universality of God's will to save all peoples. Maybe in the face of the persistent faith of people, of whatever religious tradition they may be, I like Jesus, will have to acknowledge that God is out to do the whole world good - GOOD!

August 15th is the Feast of the Assumption of Mary. It's also India's Independence Day. Is it, in some sense, the assumption of India with Mary. After all, she is the patroness of India.

There I go again...

St. Juliana Sunday School Program

We have had a very successful Sunday School Program for 3, 4 and 5 year olds for the past 17 years. We hope this program will continue, but we are in need of a few new teachers.

After 17 years of directing our Sunday School Program and teaching 4 year olds, Joyce Browne is "retiring". Claudette Link is also "retiring" after 7 years of teaching 5 year olds. Denise Pellikan has graciously provided a music program for Sunday School for the past two years. She, too, will be "retiring." We are grateful to these women for sharing their time and talents with the little ones in our parish.

Patty Cleary, who has taught 3 year olds for 15+ years will continue in the program, but will be teaching 5 year olds. We are grateful to her as well.

Soooo...we are in need of a teacher for our 3 year old children and a teacher for our 4 year old children.

Sunday School meets twice a month in school during the 9:00 am Mass beginning in mid September and concluding in mid April.

You do not need to be a certified teacher. You DO need to love children! You would have an 8th grade helper in your room.

If you are at least 18 years of age and might be interested in teaching in this wonderful program, please call Pam Francisco at the Religious Education Office, 631.2239.

It would be very sad to lose this special program due to the lack of teachers. Please consider joining this special ministry.

Welcome School Year 2005/2006

As we start the 2005/2006 school year at Saint Juliana School, the teachers and staff are looking forward to meeting the students and their families. We are eager to work with each of you as we continue our ministry of Catholic education. The entire staff remains committed to our mission of hearing and following the Gospel message, providing an excellent academic program, and assisting our students in accepting responsibility for themselves and others. I hope you will join me and the staff in praying for one another as we strive to provide "life-long learning in a faith-filled community" at Saint Juliana School.
