Father Phil's Ramblings

When I was thirsty... You gave me a drink!!

Those words were spoken by Jesus in his parable of the Judgment Day. I always like to believe that we will be judged by just such words and feeling; providing a drink or caring for the sick, or welcoming strangers, or freeing prisoners. Such actions are real and down to earth. Yes, we should pray, go to Mass and make novenas, but eating and drinking are essential for sustaining life.

Over the past two weeks we have seen countless people in storm-ravaged New Orleans begging for a drink of water. Without water we quickly die a painfully slow death of dehydration. When I saw people lining up to get cases of water and ice and when I hear of one man who was rationing his supply of water, I could not help but hear Jesus' words, "When I was thirsty..."

Have you ever been thirsty for a cool drink of water? I am sure that most -- if not all -- of us have experienced thirst at some point in our lives. On a warm day in the 80s, nothing would be better than a glass of cold-cold water.

As you are transfixed before the television set watching people -- young and old and little babies, too -- surrounded by water, neck-deep in water, yet desperately waiting in line for water, say a prayer of thanks. And if you have not yet done so, send a check to Catholic Charities for the victims of the hurricane.

We never know when we will be thirsty again, but all WE have to do is turn on the tap or reach into the refrigerator for a bottle of cold, clear water. When we are thirsty... May someone give us a drink of cool-cool water.

"RCIA...and I"...Sometimes and the "I" has to stand alone. Entering into the Rite of Christian Initiation is an "adult" thing. It's "adult" because a person is deciding to make enquiries, ask questions, mull over thoughts and feelings; maybe even engage in a little friendly and controversy - and all for the sake of arriving at the Will of God.

The motivation for entering into all this could come from a variety of different sources: a Catholic spouse; a chance meeting with a Catholic at the office or on the golf course; a highly critical article about the Catholic Church in a newspaper or a news item on TV; a reminiscence from a long-forgotten Catholic childhood; a personal or even national tragedy; or any other movement of the spirit of god Who "broods over the world" in loving compassion.

Welcome! Join the movers and shakers, or perhaps better, the "seekers" who will participate in the RCIA program for 2005/2006. Sessions will begin on October 2nd, Sunday at 10:00 am in the Pastoral Center (Northwest corner of Osceola and Touhy). Session are usually 1-1/2 hours in length.

For more information, please call the Parish Office or Father Bob Grib at 773.631.4127. Registrations will NOT be accepted after Friday, September 23rd.

Fifteen Years' Wages vs. Three Months' Wages

The eyes of the disciples of Jesus would have popped wide open in disbelief when they heard this story of their Guru. Some of them might have stifled laughter. Imagine a servant who owed his employer about $10,000,000, according to some calculation of the currency of the time! Big bucks, no?

That compared with three months' wages of a day-laborer (scholars calculate a denarius as a day's wage). You can imagine the varied reactions to the story of Jesus: disbelief, guffaws, raised eyebrows, behind-the-hand whispers, etc.

"Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy times seven times!" There is the same hyperbole in Jesus' direct response to Peter as there is in the story of the "unforgiving servant." When Jesus wants to make a point, He's not afraid to use spiritual hyperbole. Remember His statement: "If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off! Better to go into heaven handless than to burn in hell with both hands!"

The dictionary tells us that one meaning of "hyperbole" is: "an obvious and intentional exaggeration." You know, when you stop to think about it - and that's just what we're doing, isn't it? - God, in a profound way, is a "Hyperbole!" Jesus doesn't go around saying: "Two plus two equals four...what goes up must come down...the sun's rays are warm...if you don't eat, you feel hungry...an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth."

GOD IS ONE GREAT BIG HYPERBOLE!!!

Sez God: "You want love? I'll show you love! Pressed down, shaken together, over-flowing!" "You want power? I'll show you power! Lazarus, come on down!" "You want mystery? I'll show you mystery! Peter, get out here and walk on this water with me!" "YOU WANT FORGIVENESS? I'LL SHOW YOU FORGIVENESS! CAIPHAS, PONTIUS PILATE, JUDAS, PETER, I FORGIVE YOU!"

Oh, c'mon, Guru-ji, isn't that a bit much? There's no need to be so extravagant...so, so "hyperbolic." But, then again, that is the way you do things, isn't it? You live outside of our categories; your love for the world cannot even be imagined by us. Compared to you, we are like "nit-pickers" when it comes to forgiving and forgetting hurts, real or imagined.

Many of us live with a belief that God will, in the end, "settle the score" for us regarding our enemies, the people who have hurt us - be they personal or familial or national. The problem is that God's love is notorious, positively "hyperbolic," intentionally exaggerated. It causes us to go: "Whoooooeeee!" If we didn't have the life of Jesus Christ to witness to that Divine Love, we would surely limit God's love to what we can comprehend. Often, that's of the "two plus two equals four" variety. But God's love is the BIG BANG, not in theory but in reality.

Maybe it's good to remind ourselves of that on September 11th, and as we recover from the recent disaster and continue to pray for peace in the Middle East.

"You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt ($10,000,000) simply because you begged me to. Should you not have pity on your fellow servant ($300), as I had pity on you."

Sometimes, forgiveness seems like "hyperbole."

Father Bob Grib, S.J. - RCIA Moderator

*All Human Beings,
from their mother's womb,
belong to God
who searches them and knows them, who forms them and knits them together with his own hands, who gazes on them
when they are tiny, shapeless embryos and already sees in them the adults of tomorrow.*

St. Juliana Pro Life Ministry

Our Pro Life Ministry is asking our parishioners to participate in a special fundraiser to help women in crisis pregnancy situations by supporting the pro life work of The Women's Center of Greater Chicago beginning October 1st and 2nd - Respect Life weekend.

The Women's Center provides kind and compassionate counseling to women in crisis pregnancies, along with ongoing material and financial assistance. The Center is Catholic run, so Mass and other prayers are said for women and babies every day.

Baby bottles (one per family please) will be available in the vestibule of the church for you to take home and fill with spare change. Extra bottles will be available in the back of the church if you fill up your first one.

This is a wonderful opportunity for parishioners of all ages, including children to be able to work together to support "life".

Please return the bottles before any of the Masses on the weekend of October 29th & 30th.

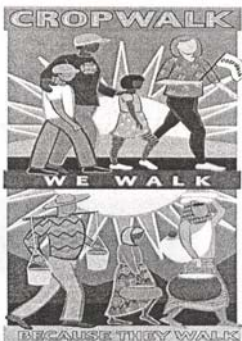

Archdiocese to Implement New Child Safety Program

In an effort to protect our children, the parishes and school of the Archdiocese of Chicago are proud to implement a new child safety education program called the Child Lures Prevention Program. This is a proactive child-safety initiative that explores the techniques used by predators to lure children into dangerous situations. It teaches children how to recognize predatory behavior and protect themselves.

NBC - 5 is airing a two-week special series, "Smart Choices, Safe Kids," introducing this child protection program, beginning Monday, September 12th on the 6:00 pm news. We encourage parents to sit down with their children and watch the news series.

The Archdiocese of Chicago will be utilizing this program in our parishes and schools this fall. Watch for further information in the weeks ahead on how you can help your children to protect themselves. It just could be the most important information you ever receive.

For more information about this program or any of the other initiatives undertaken by the Archdiocese to keep children safe, please contact the Archdioceses Office for the Protection of Children and Youth at 312.751.5388 or by emailing SAFEKIDS @ archchicago.org.

Attention: All Women of the Parish.

Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to do something special for yourself.

Join us for the next Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP) week end. It is a time for renewing your spirit, making new friends and taking time out for yourself.

The CRHP weekend takes place right here in our Parish Center on Saturday, October 8th and Sunday, October 9th.

For more information please call Sharon Brabson at 773.631.5313 or Kathy Moran at 847.823.0435.

Moms Sharing Group For All Mom's

St. Juliana Parish announces a time for moms of infants and school age children to come together with their peers and share the joys, difficulties and humor of parenting. We invite you to come and socialize with other moms who are experiencing the same issues you are.

The Moms Sharing Group will start on Wednesday, October 5th and meet once a month from 9:00 am until 11:00 am, from October through May.

Please join us and see what we are about. Take time for yourself to meet with your peers. Your children are also welcome.

If you need more information about the Moms Sharing Group, please call Joyce Browne at the Parish Center 773.631.4127.

Joyful Now

It is hard to believe that Summer is almost over and Fall is on it's way. Sooooo it's time to start thinking about our 'Joyful Now' sessions for the upcoming year. They will resume on Monday, September 12th at 11:00 am.

If you know anyone interested in joining our group or would like to see what we're about, please invite them to join us - they are more than welcome!

Joyful Now is open to all widows and widowers of the parish.

If you have any questions, please call Joyce Browne at the Parish Office...773.631.4127.

Eagle Scout Service Project

My name is Dan Stolarski and I need your help! I am a candidate for Eagle Scout through our Boy Scout Troop 965. I need your old, torn, worn out American Flags.

It is important to fly our Flag without tears, rips, or faded colors. We always want our Flag to look its best! We all have flown the Flag more often since 9-11 and our Flags show it. Many of them deserve to be retired and replaced with new Flags. We will be collecting Flags in the rear of Church the weekend after Labor Day, September 10 and 11. When you fly your Flag for this Labor Day, please take a good look at your Flag and determine if the Flag should be ceremoniously and properly retired.
