PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT

The St. Juliana Parish Pastoral Council is an enthusiastic, compassionate, faith-filled community participating in the ministry of the Church.

We are witnesses of the Good News, and through example and prayer we live the Gospel message.

Through active listening we strive to determine and understand the diverse needs of our parish and community. We minister to these needs by inviting and empowering others to become involved in meeting the spiritual, temporal and social needs of all.

We partner with the Pastor and Staff to support existing parish life, to create vision, and to plan for the future.

“Repent and Believe In The Good News”

Now waitaminit! That repentance - stuff is for Lent. We still have some time to relax in “ordinary time” before that.

Today’s readings from Scripture remind us that no one becomes a prophet without first repenting. The words “prophet” or “prophetic” are sometimes bandied about these days when the discussion centers on the role of the Church or the Christian in the modern world. Of course everyone wants to be known as a prophet.. There’s something heroic about being a prophet: calling people to repentance, casting the accusatory glance at the inequities of life, challenging people to adopt new ways of thinking or acting.

But no one can become a prophet without first personally acknowledging one’s selfish choices. Jonah was chosen by God to, as it were, “read the riot act” to the people of Nineveh. He went at it with great zeal - fire and brimstone. But when the Ninevites repented, Jonah was terribly upset with God. He pouted. He expected God to follow his agenda.

In a sense, Jonah was not a true prophet because he did not first repent of his own personal sinfulness and selfishness. He heard the call of God but he did not answer it first by spending time reflecting on himself, and how he himself was contributing to the evil of the situation.

You have only to study the lives of the truly prophetic people in the history of the world. They are not simply people who cause an upheaval or “movement” in their culture or society. The truly prophetic have deep interior lives wherein they are able to see themselves as they themselves are, before they start observing or evaluating others. Because to be a prophet does not simply mean to “call a spade a spade,” one must begin the process of prophecy within one’s self.

Look at the followers of Jesus. They were not “readymade” apostles, prophets of a new world order. They had first to divest themselves of their prejudices against the Roman occupation, the Sanhedrin, lepers, Samaritans, tax collectors, etc. If they thought they could follow this “Messiah” because he was on “their side,” they were soon dissuaded from such a simplistic point of view. Jesus was calling them to repentance before they could be missioned to the world of their time.

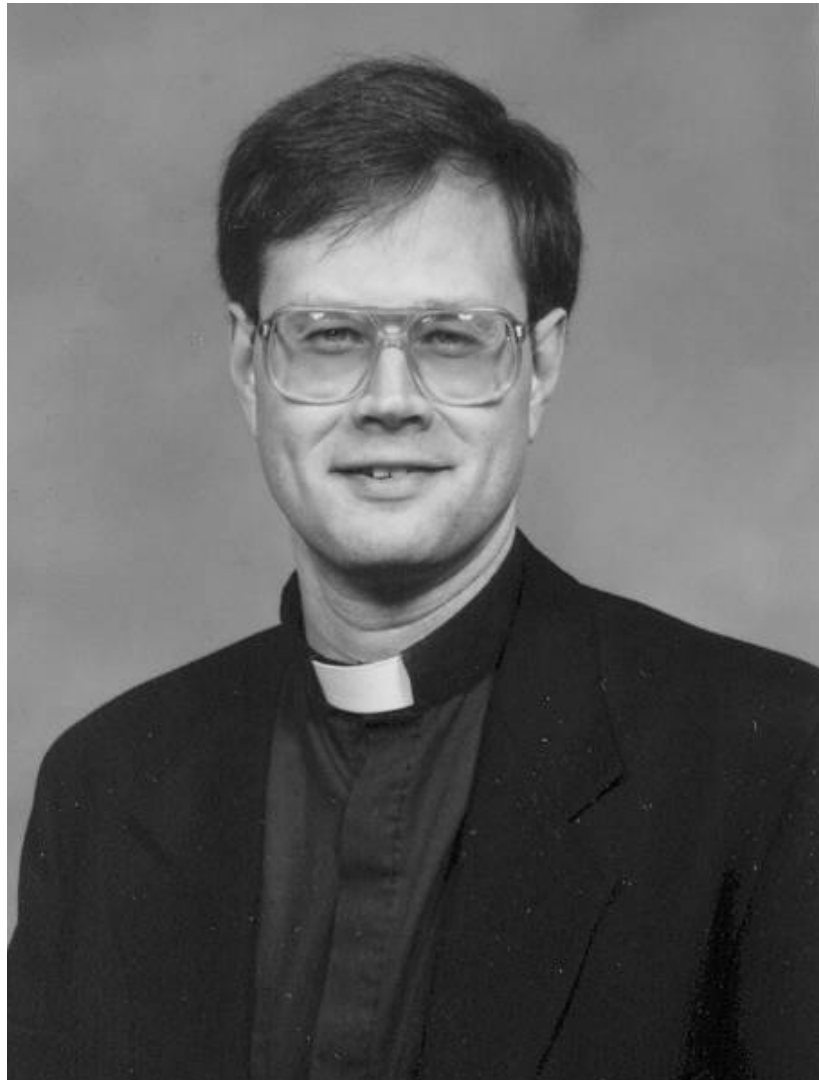

Jesus and His followers must have spent many hours in solitude as well as many hours in “group dynamics”, arguing, complaining about each other, learning their weaknesses as well as their strengths. A prophet is keenly aware of his/her weaknesses. Those weaknesses can often point to the strengths of the true prophet.

Jesus’ prophetic, public life was a mere 3 years. What was He doing all those other years to prepare Himself for His mission? Someone might say: “But did not Jesus do everything perfectly because He was God?” But part of becoming truly human, truly prophetic, implies that we learn. Is repentance a sign of human weakness or is it, perhaps, that we are made “in the Image and Likeness of God”?

“When God saw by their actions how the Ninevites turned from their evil way, He repented of the evil that He had threatened to do them; He did not carry it out..” (Book of Jonah)

"Camp Read A Book" Featured at Annual Book Fair

Wednesday, January 25 through Tuesday, January 31

St. Juliana School will be hosting its annual Scholastic Book Fair from Wednesday, January 25th through Tuesday, January 31st in the school hall. The theme for this year's Book Fair is "Camp Read A Book" and it includes wonderful books that children would love to read themselves and share with a friend. There will also be Newbery and Caldecott Medal winner books as well as series books, such as The Chronicles of Narnia by C.S. Lewis.

The Book Fair is another way St. Juliana School promotes the love of reading. While the school children will be visiting the Book Fair during school time, others are invited to attend on Sunday, January 29th from 1:00 until 3:00 PM in the school hall during the Annual Open House to celebrate Catholic Schools Week. The proceeds from this year's Book Fair will be used to purchase fiction and non-fiction books to update the current collection in St. Juliana School's Learning Resource Center.

Learning Resource Center Director, Ms. Patti Weyna, notes that the Book Fair is a win-win project. The students enjoy reading and selecting new books and the school is rewarded with new books for the school library collection. Once again visitors are urged to look over the Teachers Wish Lists posted at the Book Fair. Please consider purchasing one of these books for the classroom library. The donor will be recognized with a bookplate inside the book identifying the family or child as the benefactor. Contact Ms. Patti Weyna, St. Juliana School Learning Resource Director, at 773.631.2256 for further information about the Book Fair.

Students Share with the Elderly

The spirit of service and generosity was very evident during the month of December as the seventh and eighth grade students of St. Juliana School made and wrapped gifts for the elderly residents of Forest Villa Nursing Center in Niles. The Junior High students filled gift boxes with handmade crafts created by the students. Also included in the gift boxes were items such as socks, soap, and candy.

On Friday, December 16th the eighth grade students walked from St. Juliana School to Forest Villa Nursing Center to personally deliver their gifts and visit with the residents. Also accompanying the students during their visit with the residents of Forest Villa were Junior High teachers Mrs. Lidgus- and Mrs. Holly as well as Father Steve, our pastor.

Open House - Catholic Schools Week January 29 Through February 3, 2006

Sunday, January 29 begins Catholic Schools Week in the Archdiocese of Chicago. It is the one week of the year wherein we pay special tribute and honor to the dedication, commitment and mission of Catholic schools in our country. This year the theme for the week is Catholic Education: Character, Compassion, Values.

Please join us the week of the 29th in praying for our schools, our children, and the dedicated women and men committed to their education, faith, and growth in Christ.

Each day during this week at Saint Juliana, we will gather in unity to share knowledge, enjoy each other's company, and honor our students, parents, and teachers without whom our school could not provide the academic excellence and spiritual values which make it special.

All parishioners, parents, and friends are invited to attend our annual OPEN HOUSE on Sunday, January 29. Please join us at the 12:00 PM FAMILY LITURGY in church. Following the liturgy the school will be open until 3:00 PM for you to visit classrooms and see all the wonderful student work and projects on display. Stop and visit the Book Fair in the school hall, the proceeds of which will be used to buy new books for the school library. You may also purchase raffle tickets, refreshments, and bake sale items in the school hall. There will also be special theme baskets made up by the teachers to bid on in a silent auction.

Future Saint Juliana families are especially encouraged to come and visit our school at this time. Our School Board, teachers and staff will be happy to show you around, answer your questions, and provide you with information about Saint Juliana School.

Kindergarten and Preschool News... Saint Juliana School will continue to offer a full-day and half-day Kindergarten program for the 2006/2007 school year. Enrollment numbers will determine whether the half-day students are in a self-contained classroom or included in a full-day classroom.
