Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 26, 2006

Merciful and gracious is the LORD, slow to anger and abounding in kindness.

— Psalm 103:8

In today's first reading from the Prophet Hosea the Lord speaks to His people:

*I will espouse you to me forever:
I will espouse you in right and in justice,
in love and in mercy;
I will espouse you in fidelity,
And you shall know the Lord."*

God, the incurable romantic who "marries" His people!

As we stand at the threshold of Lent, it is good to be reminded that God "invented" romance - or rather, created it! We know what it means to be moved by passion and the deepest of human emotions. Such feelings are even thought of as concessions to human weakness, rather than human nature at its most powerful.

On Wednesday, the passionate romance of God with us begins - Lent. It would be a terrible mistake to think of it, or live it out, as a time of "going against oneself," of paying the price of our sinfulness. Ah, yes, it is that, but if it is not a time of passion and recommitment a renewal of marriage vows with the Lord, as it were - then it will be a time of heaviness and guilt.

Paul writes to the Corinthians: "Brothers and sisters: Do we need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you or from you? You are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by all, shown to be a letter of Christ ministered by us, written not in ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets that are hearts of flesh."

Even the hard-nosed Paul is not above passionate references to his feeling for his communities because they are bound to him by LOVE.

Lent - the time of renewed honeymoon with God Who has chosen us from the beginning of time - "renewed" on our part, not God's. For in God there is no "renewal"; there is only Love with not beginning and no end!

LOVE

" Love bade me welcome: yet my soul drew back
Guilty of dust and sin.
But quick-eyed Love, observing me
grow slack
From my first entrance in,
Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning
If I lacked anything.
'A guest,' I answered, 'worthy to be here.'
Love said, 'You shall be he.'
'I, the unkind, ungrateful? Ah, my
dear,
I cannot look on Thee.'
Love took my hand, and smiling, did
reply,
'Who made the eyes but I?'
'Truth, Lord, but I have marred them:
let my shame
Go where it doth deserve.'
'And know you not,' says Love, 'who bore the blame?'
'My dear, then I will serve.'
'You must sit down,' says Love, 'and taste my meat.'
So I did sit and eat."

The mystic-poet George Herbert (1593-1633) has captured the Spirit of Lent so well, has he not?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Lent, the Church's annual pre-baptismal retreat, prepares us to gather around the Easter font, renew our baptismal vows, and receive new life from the water as the elect are plunged into Christ's death and resurrection. This core meaning is more or less available, depending on whether we journey with catechumens in the parish and on the vigor of our liturgical celebration of the Triduum. Some persist in seeing Lent as a lonely journey in the wilderness; yet this week we enter the Lenten fast in solidarity with one another. The smudged foreheads you will spy throughout Ash Wednesday on buses, street corners, and supermarket aisles remind you that you are hardly alone in your desire to enact a spring cleaning regime for your spiritual life.

Long ago, this kind of repentance was available to Christians only once. Ashes and sackcloth were not raiment for a day, but permanent habits for public sinners. Fasting became a way of life, and if they sinned severely again, there was no hope of restored communion. Happily, this system did not endure. It produced reluctant Christians who even held back from baptism, like St. Augustine did, out of fear. Today we have recovered an ancient tradition that conversion and repentance are constant themes on life's journey, and that Lent is an annual opportunity to revive our baptismal identity, both as individuals and communities.

Lenten Regulations

1. Abstinence from meat is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and ALL Fridays of Lent by all Catholics 14 years old and older.
2. Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics who are 18 years of age, but not yet 59. Those who are bound to this may take only one full meal. Eating solid foods between meals is not permitted. But if necessary, two smaller meals are permitted in order to maintain strength according to individual needs.

The season of Lent begins this Wednesday, March 1st.
Our Lenten theme this year is:
"Repent and Believe in the Gospel"

We Pray that this Lenten season will be a special time for each of us to focus on Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving. Let it be a time well spent so that we are truly ready to celebrate the great feast of Easter on April 16th.

On Ash Wednesday, each adult attending Mass will receive a Lenten Beatitudes Coin, which may be carried loosely in your pocket or purse or placed on your keychain as a daily reminder of Lent.

Lenten banks will be available on Ash Wednesday and throughout Lent. Monies collected in the banks will go to those in need.

During Lent, our 7:00 am and 8:45 Masses will be in Church. We will also be given the opportunity to attend Stations of the Cross each Friday morning following the 8:45 am Mass.

If you wish to participate in our Prayer Partner Program this year, please stop in the back of Church next weekend (First Sunday of Lent) before Mass to sign your name to a Prayer Card. Following Mass, please stop back at the table and you will receive a prayer card with the name of a fellow parishioner on it and are asked to pray for him/her during the Lenten Season.

We hope that you will make this a good Lenten season. Let's not let the season go by without making it a time to repent and believe in the gospel.

St. Joseph Table

Sunday, March 19th
From 1:00 pm until 4:00 pm

Blessing of the Table will Follow the Noon Mass

Petitions for St. Joseph Altar

Petitions are an essential part of every St. Joseph Table. You are encouraged to write your intentions in a petition book located at the table and offer your personal prayers to St. Joseph.

Small keepsake bags are given to all that visit the table. Each bag contains a blessed bun and a blessed fava bean. The bread represents the "Staff of Life". It is a belief that if you store the bun in your refrigerator, you will never go hungry. The fava bean originally grown for animal feed, thrived under the worst conditions. It was the sustaining food for starving farmers and their families. They were considered "lucky" to have fava beans to eat. Legend has it that the person that carries fava beans in their pocket will never be without coins.

St. Joseph Table

The St. Joseph Table

According to legend, the St. Joseph Table originated in Sicily several centuries ago, during a period of severe drought and famine. The people were starving and all they could grow were fava beans. In desperation, they prayed to St. Joseph, the protector of the Holy Family. He answered their prayers by sending good rains and an abundant harvest to end the famine. To thank and honor St. Joseph, the people built altars consisting of grains, fruits, vegetables, seafood and wine. The food was served to the poorest of the poor and was shared in prayer and festivity. The practice continues today. As the Italian people migrated to the New World, they brought with them this unique and beautiful tradition that is carried on in homes and churches throughout the United States today.

Our annual St. Joseph Table will be held on Sunday, March 19th from 1:00 pm until 4:00 pm. Last year our table fed close to 800 people and all surplus food was taken to soup kitchens delivered by our St. Vincent de Paul Society. Monetary donations were distributed to the needy of the parish.

We are proud to report that last year our beautiful Table was featured on channel 7's "Sanctuary" which was produced by the Archdiocese of Chicago.

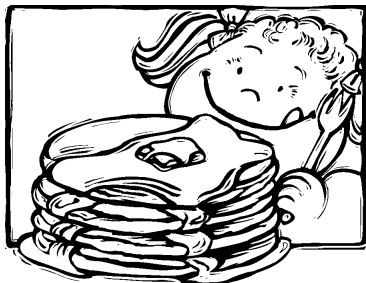

We are once again asking for your assistance in making our St. Joseph Table a success. We are accepting donations of BAKED GOODS ONLY (pastries). If you wish to donate, please fill out the information below and drop it off in the back of church at the St. Joseph Committee table or at the parish business office.

Take a Walk With God

On Sunday, March 12th, from 5:00 pm until 8:00pm in the Ahearn Activity Center, St. Juliana Parish invites you to join in the prayerful experience of the Labyrinth.....

A Quick Introduction to a Labyrinth

What is a labyrinth?

It is a path for prayer that leads from yearning towards joy, meaning, hope, and peace. What is planted here flowers in the gardens of our lives. Whether perplexed, overjoyed, confused, hopeful, hurt, distraught, happy, or simply curious, as we pray, God meets us here. It is not unusual to emerge from the labyrinth walk inspired, encouraged, grateful, and clearer about next steps in our lives.

Church leaders have made use of labyrinth images in different ways. Using the metaphor of a labyrinth to illustrate important Christian beliefs can be traced as far back as the fourth century when several early church fathers, including Ambrose, Gregory of Nyssa, and Jerome, wrote about labyrinths. In the ninth century, monks working in monastery scriptoriums used labyrinth images to illustrate their manuscripts, many of which related to the seasons and passage of time. Familiarity with the images resulted in many churches, especially those in France, to install large scale labyrinths on their church floors during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries. Using a labyrinth involves moving your body through the path, and opening your heart in faith. A "typical" labyrinth experience involves preparing yourself at the threshold, following the single path to the center, spending time in the center, following the same pathway from the center out, crossing the threshold, and then responding to the experience. There is no single "right" way on walking the labyrinth: praying in whatever way helps you connect with God during the labyrinth encounter is the "right" way.

Parish Council - Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who responded to our survey during November and December. We are pleased to say that we received more than 300 responses.

Overall we are delighted with the survey responses. We hoped for you to help us identify needs in a very successful parish, and that is, for the most part, what we received. Your suggestions and comments are clear and direct. While we may not be able to enact every suggestion, you can be sure that each is being read by Fr. Steve and the Parish Council, and prayerfully considered for our best response.

Our first action is to contact those who provided their name and phone number. Members of the Parish Council will be making these calls during the next few weeks. Then we will be meeting with our Commissions to discuss all of the responses and further action. We will report again after these meetings are held.

Your responses will help to make St. Juliana an even better parish.

Thank you!

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Office of the Archbishop

Post Office Box 1979
Chicago, Illinois 60690-1979

February 26, 2006

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

After generations of religious persecution by the atheist rule of Communism, the 27 countries of Central and Eastern Europe are steadfast in their determination to rebuild God's Kingdom.

The theme of this year's Collection to Aid the Church in Central and Eastern Europe is – HOPE. This hope has been strengthened by the generosity of Catholics from our Archdiocese as well as others throughout the United States. Our past support has provided a witness of our concern for the Universal Church and in particular for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. In solidarity, the Church in Lithuania recently took up a collection to aid the victims of the Katrina and Rita hurricanes.

May Our Lord continue to bless you and your loved ones as we live with a renewed sense of interdependence with one another as parish, Archdiocese and Universal Church. Your generous support of this collection will strengthen the vitality and growth of our Catholic family in the East.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago
