"Souper" Bowl Sunday

Saturday, February 3rd

Sunday, February 4th
Before and After all the Masses

Members of St. Vincent de Paul will be collecting cans of soup and monetary donations at all Masses on February 3rd and 4th.

The proceeds will go to the food bank at St. Thomas of Canterbury.

Your contribution will make this "Souper" Bowl another great success.

"Before I Formed You In The Womb I Knew You"

These words were spoken to the Prophet Jeremiah. They validated his career as one sent to the nations. It continues: BEFORE YOUR WERE BORN I DEDICATED YOU, A PROPHET TO THE NATIONS.

What we sometimes fail to appreciate is that the same can be said of each and every human being born into this world. We are all chosen. We are all dedicated. We are all appointed... before we are formed in the womb of our Moms! That's pretty awesome stuff, no?

How does that express itself in our lived experience? One way is in our expanding consciousness of other people. In our Mom's wombs, we seem to be alone, nurtured in the darkness of total envelopment. But it is not long before we are thrust, as it were, into a world of other people. In fact, in most cases, it is other people who help us enter that world.

But there remains in us a primordial need to be enveloped, to "belong." Our nurturing involves other people and establishes relationships which protect, while they allow and foster growth. Mom and Dad, then the wider family of brothers and sisters, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, neighbors, schoolmates, the "crowd" ("that ole gang of mine!"), etc. Even our religious affiliation provides us with a group of people with whom to belong, or, as the youngsters might put it: "with whom to hang."

One's ethnicity also provides, for a time, a place of refuge and identity. It is all a nurturing. But, in our hearts the words always echo: "Before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations." There is an outward thrust in all of us to ever remind us of our origins in the Heart of God.

"Before you were born
I dedicated you,
a prophet to the nations."

For the Jewish people of the time of Jesus, the end-point had been reached. They were the chosen people of God. And all others?! In a sense, the Jews began to return to the womb - they began to "curl in" on themselves. They chose the darkness of certitude rather than the sometimes unclarity of the light.

What is it that Jesus said in the synagogue of His home-town that evoked such a response: "When the people heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove Him out of the town, and led Him to the brow of the hill to hurl Him down headlong!!" It must have sounded like: "GOD IS THE GOD OF ALL HUMANS; GOD LOVES EVERYONE." God chose to help a widow in Zarephath in Sidon. God chose to cure Naaman the Syrian.

God belongs to no one...everyone belongs to God.

Father Bob Grib, S.J.
RCIA, of course!

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

The Good News in Education

Open House - Catholic Schools Week January 28 Through February 4, 2007

Sunday, January 28 begins Catholic Schools Week in the Archdiocese of Chicago. It is the one week of the year wherein we pay special tribute and honor to the dedication, commitment and mission of Catholic schools in our country. This year the theme for the week is Catholic Schools: The Good News in Education.

Please join us this week as we pray for our schools, our children, and the dedicated women and men committed to their education, faith, and growth in Christ.

Each day during this week at Saint Juliana, we will gather in unity to share knowledge, enjoy each other's company, and honor our students, parents, and teachers without whom our school could not provide the academic excellence and spiritual values which make it special.

All parishioners, parents, and friends are invited to attend our annual OPEN HOUSE this Sunday. Please join us at the 12:00 PM FAMILY LITURGY in Church. Following the liturgy the school will be open until 3:00 PM for you to visit classrooms and see all the wonderful student work and projects on display. Stop and visit the Book Fair in the school hall, the proceeds of which will be used to buy new books for the school library. You may also purchase raffle tickets, refreshments, and bake sale items in the school hall.

Future Saint Juliana families are especially encouraged to come and visit our school at this time. Our School Board, teachers and staff will be happy to show you around, answer your questions, and provide you with information about Saint Juliana School.

REGISTRATION for new school families will be on Sunday,

February 4 from 9:30 AM to Noon in the Ahearn Activity Center. Watch the bulletin for more details about registration, or stop in the school office on OPEN HOUSE Sunday, or call the office at 773.631.2256.

Saint Juliana School will continue to offer a full-day and half-day Kindergarten program for the 2007/2008 school year. Enrollment numbers will determine whether the half-day students are in a self-contained classroom or included in a full-day classroom.

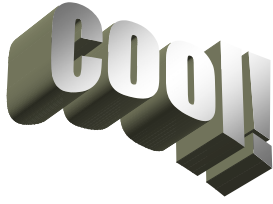

Our four-year-old Preschool Program offers classes five days a week from 8:15 - 10:45 A.M. Taking into consideration the demand for morning classes, we will offer two morning sessions. We will offer an afternoon program if there is sufficient enrollment.

Classes for three-year-olds are held on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 8:15 - 10:45 A.M. We will also offer a two-day morning program on Tuesday and Thursday if there is sufficient enrollment. For an additional fee, students in the three-year-old or four-year-old programs can stay after the morning sessions in the Preschool Day Care program until the afternoon dismissal at 2:50 P.M. Please visit our school website for more information.

The Catholic community of Saint Juliana School is dedicated to promoting the spiritual, emotional, physical, and social development of each student in an educational setting which fosters Christian values of peace, justice, and concern for others as found in the Gospels.

We hope to see YOU on OPEN HOUSE Sunday!

Saint Juliana is a Catholic School with: GOOD NEWS in EDUCATION.

Congratulations Miss Patti Weyna - Heart of the School

Congratulations to Miss Patti Weyna, recipient of the Archdiocese of Chicago "Heart of the School Award". This award seeks to recognize outstanding, unique and innovative accomplishments by individual teachers in the areas of Arts, Behind the Scenes, Catholic School Identity and Mission, Innovation and Creativity, Leadership, Rising Star, and Technology. Miss Weyna was chosen as one of two "Behind the Scenes" winners. Four other Saint Juliana teachers were also nominated: Mrs. Christine Boldt, Mrs. Eileen Cahill, and Mrs. Stephanie Newes in the Innovative and Creative category; and Miss Amy Caplis, Rising Star. We are very proud of these fine teachers and of all the teachers on our staff at Saint Juliana School.

Thank You!!

I would like to thank the St. Vincent de Paul society for the beautiful poinsettia plant. Also the Christmas cards made by Caroline, Patrick, Tim, Joe, Alie and Allison were so special. I am very grateful.

Many thanks to our parish family for all your prayers, they have really helped me in my recovery.

A very special thank you to Father Bob for all his many visits to me.

Sincerely,
 Mike Pontrelli & Family

Holy Hour in The Chapel

Mondays from 7:00 - 8:00 pm

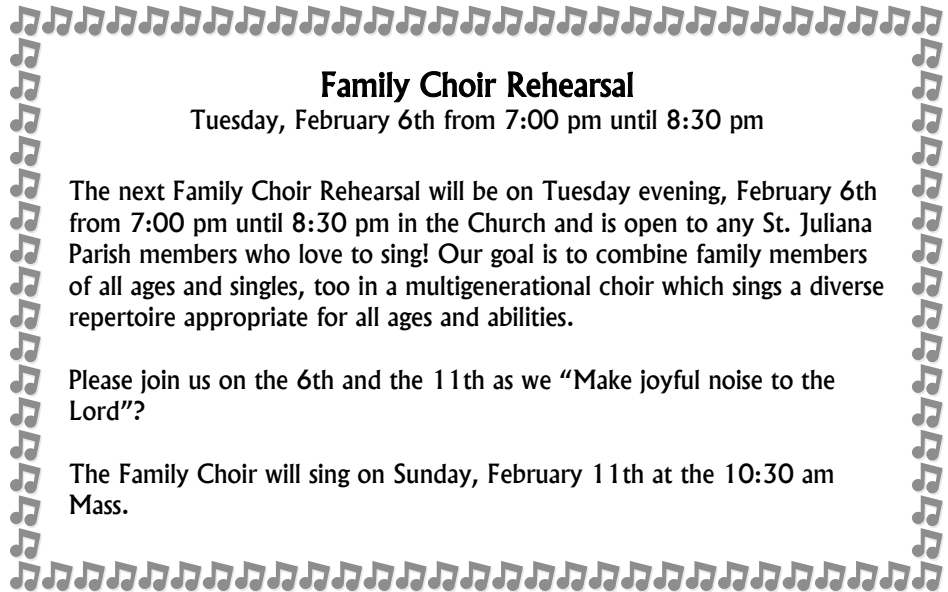

It is true, Our Lord hears our prayers anywhere for He has made the promise, "Ask, and you will receive," but He has revealed to His servants that those who visit Him in the Blessed Sacrament will obtain a more abundant measure of grace.

Blessed Henry Suso says that Jesus will grant the petitions of the faithful in His Eucharistic presence sooner than in any other place.

Family Choir Rehearsal

Tuesday, February 6th from 7:00 pm until 8:30 pm

The next Family Choir Rehearsal will be on Tuesday evening, February 6th from 7:00 pm until 8:30 pm in the Church and is open to any St. Juliana Parish members who love to sing! Our goal is to combine family members of all ages and singles, too in a multigenerational choir which sings a diverse repertoire appropriate for all ages and abilities.

Please join us on the 6th and the 11th as we "Make joyful noise to the Lord"?

The Family Choir will sing on Sunday, February 11th at the 10:30 am Mass.
