"The Ethnic Connection"

The St. Patrick's Party and the St. Joseph's Table are much more than a little taste of Ireland and Italy. They remind all of us how important our personal histories are, our beginnings. I think it took me a long time, years even, for me to accept my roots.

When I was in school, we didn't want to be looked on as "D.P.'s," so we unconsciously opposed learning Polish. To be able to speak and understand Polish was a sure sign that you were "from outside," not really American - in short, a D.P. (displaced person). Can you imagine?! To be bi - or even tri-lingual was considered in those days, a disadvantage, something not to be made public.

How I regret those early years of narrow-mindedness! But, unfortunately, they cannot be undone. When I began to discover my "roots", I began to understand myself better, to take pride in my forebears and their courage to leave behind relative security and the "trodden path" to cross a sea and settle in a New World— literally a "new" world!

Our ethnic celebrations are more than "hail, fellow, well met"! They are more than wearing a particular color or eating a particular food. Oh, they are that too, but our ethnic celebrations are so much more than that. They are remembering, a kind of liturgy or memorial. In remembering and celebrating our Irish or Italian heritage, we are paying homage to our Polish, German, Scottish, African, Indian, Jewish, Filipino, Lebanese, Hungarian (N.B. the reigning St. Pat's Day queen's Dad is Hungarian!!), etc. roots. Someone might say: "Hey! You didn't mention my ethnic group!" If you feel a little put out that your specific ethnic background is not mentioned in the above list, then thank God that your ethnicity is still alive in you, available to you for reflection and assimilation.

You know, at the recent St. Pat's Party, those wonderful Mullane dancers, many of whom were our own St. Juliana kids, were not just dancing Irish jigs and reels. They were celebrating their roots. Through their dancing, I was in touch with my own roots, grateful for my family, for all those who have gone before me.

Whenever we witness young, enthusiastic dancers or singers, of whatever ethnic background, we are given a direct experience of what being of that ethnic group must be like. But the experience opens us to all other peoples as well. We can all remember through the feast of any ethnic group, that we have all come from our fore-mothers and fore-fathers. We do not stand isolated in history, but are part of the great movement of human history toward its Source - the Lord of the Dance.

To all of you, still vibrantly conscious of your roots: THANK YOU FOR HELPING US TO REMEMBER THAT WE STAND ON THE SHOULDERS OF ALL WHO HAVE GONE BEFORE.

May God use our various ethnic gifts for His/Her greater honor and glory!

Father Bob Grib, S.J.
RCIA - And God said: "What a nice crowd of people!"

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

"Stay With Us, Lord"

Jesus tells a story about a landowner who planted a fig tree in his garden. The man's gardener gave the tree very special care. But after three years, the tree did not grow even one fig. The landowner then ordered the gardener to cut the useless tree down. But when the gardener pleaded to save the tree, the owner agreed to give it one more chance.

This parable is a warning for us. The gardener, Jesus, has won for us the chance to grow and produce much fruit. But all his loving care will not be enough unless we accept his love. If we do not, on the day of judgment the landowner, God, will reject us.

Living the Word: Keep in mind that a regular and active prayer life is essential to fruitful growing.

Monday, April 2 From 10:00 am – 1:00 pm

On Monday morning, April 2, from 10:00 am - 1:00 pm, our Joyful Now Ministry will be hosting 'Forever in Our Hearts', a time for conversation and reflection for anyone who has lost a spouse.

Joyful Now feels this day to be timely as it is Monday of Holy Week, the week we walk with Jesus on his journey to Jerusalem. As our Joyful Now members have experienced their own 'Good Friday' the day they lost their spouse, the promise of Easter Sunday keeps them a hopeful and vibrant group.

'Forever in Our Hearts' is open to any one who has lost a spouse. As it is most helpful to know how many will be attending or if you have any questions, please call Joyce Browne at the parish business office 773.631.4127.

Petitions for St. Joseph Altar

Petitions are an essential part of every St. Joseph Table. You are encouraged to write your intentions in a petition book located at the table and offer your personal prayers to St. Joseph.

Small keepsake bags are given to all that visit the table. Each bag contains a scroll, a blessed bun and a blessed fava bean. The bread represents the "Staff of Life". It is a belief that if you store the bun in your refrigerator, you will never go hungry. The fava bean originally grown for animal feed, thrived under the worst conditions. It was the sustaining food for starving farmers and their families. They were considered "lucky" to have fava beans to eat. Legend has it that the person that carries fava beans in their pocket will never be without coins.

The scroll, blessed bun and fava bean are tokens of the St. Joseph Altar and a reminder to pray to St. Joseph, for your needs and the needs of others.

Permission Required

In order to sell or hand out anything in and around church before and after masses, you must obtain permission from Father Steve at least 3-4 weeks beforehand.

The St. Joseph Table

St. Joseph Table

According to legend, the St. Joseph Table originated in Sicily several centuries ago, during a period of severe drought and famine. The people were starving and all they could grow were fava beans. In desperation, they prayed to St. Joseph, the protector of the Holy Family. He answered their prayers by sending good rains and an abundant harvest to end the famine. To thank and honor St. Joseph, the people built altars consisting of grains, fruits, vegetables, seafood and wine. The food was served to the poorest of the poor and was shared in prayer and festivity. As the Italian people migrated to the New World, they brought with them this unique and beautiful tradition that is carried on in homes and churches throughout the United States today.

Our annual St. Joseph Table will be held on Sunday, March 18th from 1:00 pm until 4:00 pm. There is no charge for this delicious dinner, but cash donations are encouraged. Please be generous as you are able. All donations aid the poor and needy of the parish

Once again we are asking for your assistance in making our St. Joseph Table a success. If you wish to donate a meatless, perishable food dish, we would appreciate it if you would please deliver it on Sunday, March 18th by 11:00 am, due to our lack of refrigeration space. We also accept donations of baked goods.

Parish Pastoral Council Meeting - February Minutes

The Parish Pastoral Council had its regular monthly meeting on Monday, February 19th, at 7:30 PM in the Parish Center. In attendance were Diane Damert, Julie Longo, Sharon Brabson, Francis Corrigan, Father Steve, Peter Ruddy, Jim Walsh, Mary Gehrling, Diane Holmen, Walter Powers, Lisa Philbrick, Patti Weyna and Bruce Burud.

This time the meeting started out with thoughts from Oscar Romero, the assassinated Archbishop of El Salvador (1917-1980) regarding God's work starting with us. Many members were moved upon recalling Romero doing God's work. On the business side of things, the Council moved on to the Pastor's Report. Fr. Steve updated everyone on the formats that St. Juliana was required to follow for the Annual Catholic Appeal, and noted that our progress was doing pretty well so far. Up next, Fr. Steve will be helping to put budgets together and preparing the Financial Board for next year.

The School Report was given by Patti Weyna, starting with information regarding the new Registration Fee that will be implemented next year for school children. The simplified reason for this fee is so that the school can rely on this income rather than fundraising for a portion of the budget. Once explained, most parents were ok with the fee, which will be smaller than some other area schools. Battle of the Books is proving to be a big hit again this year, with the number of kids involved growing fast. The school kids are also preparing for the Terra Nova Tests and the Science Fair.

Next up was feedback from the February Commission meeting which was held the prior Monday. There were five separate break-out sessions with the parish's organizations and the Council enjoyed recaps from each of these sessions.

The Council has certainly been busy, among the various meetings in February, some members of the Council also managed to fit in time to attend the annual Parish Leadership Day, this year held at Maria High School on the South Side. The six Council members that went gave summaries of their day. They managed to cover 18 workshops that gave them great stories to share, hand-outs and helpful skills and teaching tools. There were excellent presentations, captivating speakers - including Cardinal Francis George and invigorating energy all around.

Finally, the timeline regarding the bulletin re-organization was discussed. Followed by setting the agenda for the March meeting and a closing prayer from Father Steve. The aforementioned meeting will take place Monday, March 19th at 7:30 PM in the Parish Center.
