PASTORAL COUNCIL MISSION STATEMENT

The St. Juliana Parish Pastoral Council is an enthusiastic, compassionate, faith-filled community participating in the ministry of the Church.

We are witnesses of the Good News, and through example and prayer we live the Gospel message.

Through active listening we strive to determine and understand the diverse needs of our parish and community. We minister to these needs by inviting and empowering others to become involved in meeting the spiritual, temporal and social needs of all.

We partner with the Pastor and Staff to support existing parish life, to create vision, and to plan for the future.

“I Received From The Lord What I Also Handed On To You”

Very often at wedding liturgies, when I come to the words of consecration, that very dramatic and holy moment when we recall that Jesus gave His Body and Blood for the world, it flashes through my mind and heart that this couple, this husband and wife are saying the very same words to each other.

THIS IS MY BODY THAT IS FOR YOU...THIS CUP IS THE NEW COVENANT IN MY BLOOD.”

What a powerful, truly romantic, declaration of love, of self-gift!

Sometimes we struggle, even perhaps anguish, trying to have some experience of God’s love for us. At times, it may seem far beyond us, in some Divine realm into which access is limited. We may even think that only a select few are called into the depths of that Mystery. We might say: “Oh, if only I were holy enough to be related to God like the saints!”

The Sacramental system instituted by Jesus is not something beyond our understanding. However, you could argue that love is not something or someone you “understand.” Love is shown in deeds and love is “understood” in deeds. If love is not “sacramentalized,” i.e. put into signs, it would be difficult, if not impossible, for us humans to experience it.

Now what I’m wondering, is whether God uses our very humanity and its manifold experiences to reveal Him/Herself. That is to say, our humanity is one, great big SACREMENT! God uses the most profound experiences of our lives to reveal Love: birth, adolescence, consecration of one’s life, creativity, sickness, death. In time, these events were chosen to represent the total SACRAMENT of our lives. In Jesus Christ, the Mystery of being human-Divine is revealed, and it is ours!

A man and woman give themselves to each other - “This is my body...This is my blood” - and life becomes. Jesus, aware of the profundity of human love because it has been put into humans by the Father, makes His ultimate gift of Love in terms we humans can appreciate: “This is Me; take me into yourselves and live as my Father, and I live by the power of the Spirit.” So very much like sacramental marriage, is it not?

Receiving the Body and Blood of Christ is not some “magic” from outside our human lives and experience. It is the sacrament from which we all come into being. It is the sacrament from which the whole Church comes into being.

Oh, Jesus: “THIS IS MY BODY; THIS IS MY BLOOD!”

Would Psalm 8 help?

“Oh Lord, When I look at the sky, which you have made,
At the moon and the stars, which you set in their place—
What are human beings, that you think of them,
Mere mortals, that you care for them?
Yet you made them inferior only to yourself;
You crowned them with glory and honor.”

Wow!

Father Bob Grib, S.J. - RCIA - “And they lived happily ever after.”

Farewell

Dear Friends and Students:

The past thirteen years have been filled with fond memories for me here at St. Juliana.

You have become for me an extended family. I have laughed with you, cried with you, and learned from you. It has been my privilege to teach your children, watch them grow, see them receive the sacraments, and graduate. My time here has been wonderful!

But, the Spirit calls me to move on. I have taken a job as the principal of St. Catherine of Alexandria School in Oak Lawn. As many of you know, I moved to the South side two years ago and the cost of gas and construction has made my travel north a challenge.

I pray that God will continue to bless this faith community that I have called home. You will always be in my prayers and I hope you will keep me in yours. I would love to hear from students and former students telling me of their accomplishments. I will send Mrs. Barton my email address as soon as I know it. Pray often as a family and stay close to God.

Love,
Ms. Catherine Hudson

Graduation Prayer

Father, I have knowledge, so will You show me now, how to use it wisely and find a way somehow to make the world I live in a little better place, and make life with its problems a little bit easier to face. Grant me faith and courage and put purpose in my days, Show me how to serve Thee in effective ways. So my education, my knowledge and my skill may find their true fulfillment as I learn to do Thy will. And may I ever be aware in everything I do, that knowledge comes from learning, and wisdom comes from You. Amen.

Parish Pastoral Council Meeting – May Minutes

The May meeting for Parish Council took place on the 21st at 7:30 pm in the Parish Dining Room. In attendance were Diane Damert, Julie Longo, Sharon Brabson, Francis Corrigan, Fr. Steve, Margie Shiel, Peter Ruddy, Jim Walsh, Mary Gehrling, Walter Powers, Lisa Philbrick, Patti Weyna and Bruce Burud. As always, the meeting started with Faithsharing, this time headed by Mary. She passed out a hand-out that asked the question “How do we find the best way to give ourselves away?” A short exercise encouraging people to find ways to discern the will of God for themselves and how to serve others so that they can feel joy and grow by doing it as well.

The Council then moved on to Old Business. Commitments to volunteering for the Parish Birthday Party and the new bulletin format were discussed. Also, the wheels were set in motion for getting the Parish Showcase started. Tentative dates were discussed along with a mailing that will go out to parish organizations.

Fr. Steve then gave the Council his Pastor’s Report, which updated Council members on summer projects at the school. The abatement is ready to go. We are still getting bids for roof repair. And the Financial Council, including its several strong new members, is planning ahead for the next couple of summers of working on projects.

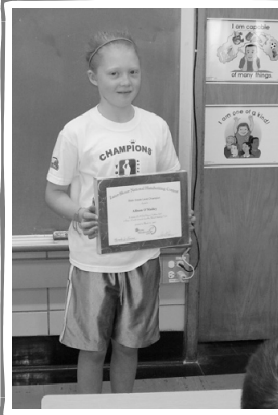

Patti then gave her School Report. She updated the Council on some end of year school events, Graduation (June 6th) and the last day of school (June 8th). Also, this year’s Terra Nova test scores were high, and increasing!

The Council then moved on to discuss new membership. Many may recall the spoken invitation after all Masses a few weeks ago to gather interested parishioners for an informational meeting and potential membership in the Parish Council. This invitation was very successful and many parishioners came to the meeting to see if they would like to take an active role in parish life. There is a second meeting scheduled for Monday, June 4th at 7:30 pm in the Parish Dining Room, after which there will be at least 6 new members in the Council. The current members planned for the June 4th meeting and discussed other details that would be helpful for future membership invitations to the parish.

Next on the table was the Parish Council calendar for the upcoming ’07-’08 year. Sharon put together a suggestion list of items to discuss then. The Council looked over these items and decided to think about any others they would like to add. Members will bring these suggestions to the June meeting, which is the last business meeting of the year. The agenda was then set for the June 18th meeting (7:30 pm, Parish Dining Room). And with a closing prayer from Fr. Steve, the meeting was adjourned.
