Thank you For Helping to Light Our Way to Our Lord

Have you noticed the lights are brighter in church?

Well when you see Bill Schaul, (Facilities & Maintenance) and parishioner Jim Flood, you might want to thank them for all their efforts.

It is a much more intricate endeavor than when we change our light bulbs at home. It takes a lot of time, skill and patience.

Thank you Bill and Jim.

The Feast of the Immaculate Conception

Saturday, December 8th
8:30 Mass

The Feast of the Immaculate Conception, which is a Holyday of Obligation, will be celebrated at the 8:30am Mass on Saturday, Dec. 8th.

Please join us as we celebrate this special feast day devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary

2008 Parish Calendars

Thank you M.J. Suerth Funeral Home for once again providing St. Juliana Parish with the beautiful wall calendars.

Mountains Out of Molehills

Isaiah writes: "The mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills. All nations shall stream toward it: many peoples shall come and say: 'Come, let us climb the Lord's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob.' "

In 1966 I saw Mount Everest with the naked eye - an awe and prayer-inspiring event for this fellow from the near south side of Chicago! Oh, it was some distance away. Some Jesuit companions and I, an international conglomeration of youthful spirits and energy, had traveled to Calcutta from where we trekked to a minor hill station. If I remember correctly, it was called Sundukphu, or such sounding name.

We were an assortment of travelers: an American, two Australians, a South Indian or two, a Belgique (French speaking), a Fleming, an Indian tribal, and, in the midst of this motley band of Jesuits, a lone diocesan priest from Ireland.

When I prayed and reflected over today's first reading and its reference to "the mountain of the Lord's house" higher than all the rest, I had images and memories of that Everest experience 40 years ago. All of us had one aim: to get a glimpse of Everest from Sundukphu. Even though we were young and vigorous, the climb up from the plains was, at times, challenging. Though we had known each other only a very short while and came from different cultures, it did not take long before we were wise cracking and sharing life-stories.

As we climbed higher, it was as if the encumbrances of our diverse languages and customs fell away, like the excess portage of mountain climbers who go up and up with less and less to hinder the climb.

Oh, we were not climbing as in the photos or films you might see, hanging onto ropes, blown away by the high winds, etc. But it was a climb of some considerable challenge. What did keep with us was our good humor, the spirit of sharing the food we had in our packs, and the ready hand or support as we each traversed the narrow paths and tortuous ascents.

When we arrived at the top of Sundukphu, clouds had spread a thick blanket over us and nothing could be seen. We were saddened at the prospect of not seeing Everest. But around 4:30 am a cry was heard. It was Boniface Kujur shouting: "Fellas! C'mon out! Look! Look!" And there, with the sun shining on her snowy, majestic head was Everest. We sang; we danced; we hugged each other. But then we fell silent for a long, long, long time.

The Mountain of the Lord's House! We had made the journey together. There's no fun in doing it any other way.

Father Bob Grib, S.J.

First Sunday of Advent
"Come Lord Jesus"

Today marks the beginning of a new liturgical year. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us to be diligent, to be ready for the coming of the Son of Man. Heeding this teaching, we spend every day preparing for the glory of the Second Coming – even as we begin to prepare to celebrate the birth of our Savior over 200 years ago. This teaching is not meant to bring fear; Jesus' teachings are rooted in love. Rather, Jesus lovingly calls us to be diligent for that incredible and unknown moment when eternal life dawns.

Catholic Church Extension Society

Eligibility and Guidelines

Any Catholic freshman through senior student in the United States or U.S. territory attending a Catholic, public or private high school or home school is eligible to enter Catholic Extension's 2008 short story contest.

Here's how:

Visit the Catholic Extension website, www.catholicextension.org and read some of the stories about those demonstrating "Faith in action in the American missions" — the dedicated priests, religious and laypeople working on behalf of the Catholic Church in poor or remote areas of our country.

You might find inspiration in one of our "Hidden Heroes" or in one of the missionaries featured in current or past issues of EXTENSION Magazine. (You can also sign up online to receive free issues of EXTENSION for your home or classroom.)

Write a short story of NO MORE THAN 2,000 words featuring a fictional character who reflects the values and/or work of one of our missionaries. The story must be your own work and must never have been published. PLEASE DO NOT USE REAL NAMES.

Judges will select the winners based on creativity, clarity, and reflection of Catholic Extension's work in the American missions. Employees of Catholic Extension and their family members are ineligible.

Winners will agree to have their stories, names and photographs published in EXTENSION Magazine, on the Catholic Extension website, and in other promotional materials.

Entries sent by mail must be typed double-space and have a completed entry form attached. Please include a page number and the story's title on each page.

Entries also may be sent via e-mail in Microsoft Word format to info@catholicextension.org, but a signed entry form must be sent by regular mail. Entries without signed entry forms or which exceed the maximum word count will not be considered.

CCD News

The Third Year CCD would like to share a project we have planned for Advent this year. Our project is entitled "The Advent/Christmas Stations". There are eleven stations:

The Annunciation, The Visitation,

Joseph's Vision, The Journey, Arrival in Bethlehem, The Manger, The Nativity, The Heavenly Choir, The Shepherd's Visit, The Star, and The Epiphany.

Each class has been given three to four of these stations and were asked to create a picture of each one based on a description that was provided to the students. The students were provided poster-board in order to create their visual of the stations. Mrs. Harris' class is studying The Annunciation, The Visitation and Joseph's Vision. Ms. Ebrom's class is studying The Journey, Arrival in Bethlehem, The Manger and The Nativity Stations. Mrs. Rottman's Class have been discovering The Heavenly Choir, The Shepherd's Visit, The Star and The Epiphany. This is an in-class project and students were placed into groups and asked to read the description of the station and then create their visual of the stations. We had two weeks to finish this project and we were intertwining the meaning of these stations along with the importance of Advent and Christmas.

On December 12th, the three classes will convene together in Ms. Ebrom's classroom to present the stations to each other. We will be doing this in a prayer service format. We want to make this experience as spiritual as we can while presenting the true meaning of Advent and Christmas to the students. The teachers are very excited about this new way of presenting Advent and Christmas to the students and we hope they enjoy the experience.

Ms. Ebrom, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Rottman

St. Juliana Parish Annual Coat Drive

Saturday, December 8th & Sunday, December 9th

Please bring any coats or jackets you want to donate to the vestibule of the church during the weekend masses. The coats we collect will be given to the Salvation Army, an organization that helps many people in need throughout the year.

The coats and jackets will need to be sorted and bagged for pickup. If you would be able to give us about an hour of your time on Monday December 10th at 7:30 in Church to help us accomplish this, it would be greatly appreciated. If you have helped in the past, please come back again. If you are looking for something worthwhile to do for an hour, please join us.

Thank You!

Our St. Vincent de Paul Society would like to thank the St. Juliana Community for its generosity with our recent Thanksgiving Food Drive.

So many organizations assisted in making this a community success. We would like to thank: CCD, SPRED, our Scouting Programs, St. Juliana Junior High, St. Andrew's and of course, each and every person who contributed either with food or a monetary donation.

Thank you! So, many were/are served due to you.

Baby Bottle Fundrasier

We have received the last of the baby bottles and have the total dollar amount that was collected.

Together with our parishioners, school children and CCD we collected $3,613.33.

The Women's Center would like to extend their deepest gratitude for your generosity which enables them to aid the babies and their mothers.

God Bless you all.

Butterfly Group for Bereaved Parents' Annual Christmas Mass

Christmas Mass Saturday, December
8th at 1:00 pm
At St. John Brebeuf
In the Chapel

All bereaved parents, family and friends are welcome, whether their loss is very recent or occurred many years ago.

The Butterfly Group is a bereavement program for parents who have lost their child, regardless of child's age or circumstances of death. The members do not attempt to rescue
one another, but rather to compan-pm in the rectory of St. John Brebeuf, 8307 N. Harlem

OFFICE OF THE CARDINAL

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

November 16, 2007

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The annual Retirement Fund for Religious Appeal has provided much needed assistance to women and men religious who have faithfully and generously served in our schools, hospitals, parishes and communities for years. Our Church and our nation have been blessed beyond measure by these dedicated religious. They ministered in the spirit of the Gospel, asking little in return.

The people of the Archdiocese of Chicago have always responded very generously to this collection, contributing over $1.3 million last year alone. I am very proud of your willingness to share in the care of our aging women and men religious. Your charity is deeply appreciated.

Soon, your parish priests or religious themselves will speak to you about the ongoing needs facing our aging religious. I urge you to remember these generous women and men by continuing to be generous in return.

As we celebrate the hope and promise of the Advent season, let us work together to spread the peace of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. May God bless you and your loved ones. You are in my prayers; please keep me in yours.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago

Reporting Suspicions of Financial Misconduct

Anyone who suspects financial misconduct at any institution operated by the Archdiocese of Chicago is encouraged to file a report with EthicsPoint, a third-party investigative firm. Reports may be filed confidentially and anonymously via the EthicsPoint hotline at 866.294-5256 or their web site at www.ethicspoint.com. A link to more information about EthicsPoint, as well as an outline of our commitment to sound financial stewardship and accountability is provided on our web site at www.stjuliana.org/finance.php.
