Saint Juliana Parish

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 7, 2008

"If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father."

— Matthew 18:19

“Love Does No Evil To the Neighbor; Hence, Love is the Fulfillment of the Law.”

On September 1st fifty years ago I entered the Society of Jesus. Who could have imagined the journey I would begin on that date? God would give me the cultures and religious traditions far different from the ones I grew up in. One of those traditions was Islam.

I was fortunate to meet Islam in its families and children and religious traditions as a lived reality in India. Muslims became my friends and I theirs. I had been exposed to the usual stereotypes of Hindus and Muslims provided by films, comic books, and the generalized opinions of my family and teachers.

This year, our Muslim brothers and sisters began the Fast of Ramazaan on the 1st of September. To compare this ninth month of the Muslim calendar to our Lent would already give us an understanding of its meaning and purpose; that is, presuming we know the meaning and purpose of Lent! For much of the following information about Ramazaan, I am indebted to my Jesuit friend, Father Paul Jackson, S.J. and Australian who has dedicated his life to the Muslims of India and the understanding of the theology of Islam. In the book THE MUSLIMS OF INDIA: BELIEFS AND PRACTICES, Father Jackson has done a tremendous service to the non-Islamic community in India and throughout the world by compiling the works of many scholars. His studies have led him into Islamic mysticism and revealed its riches to Hindus and Christians alike.

The Ramazaan fast covers the whole month beginning when the new moon is seen. Its end is officially fixed when the new moon of the next month is seen.

Muslims call Ramazaan the blessed month, a month of mercy and compassion. Certainly, it is a month of self-purification of commiseration with the poor and hungry. Above all, it is a month of self-mastery and discipline. It is for Muslims a month of reckoning with oneself, a unique month to take stock of one's moral and spiritual assets and liabilities.

Some pious Muslims make a month-long retreat during these days in imitation of the Prophet Muhammad. They recite and pray over the Quran. Fasting intensifies their prayer and contemplation.

On every day of Ramazaan, Muslims give in charity besides offering daily hospitality to the needy and wayfarer. Food is distributed to the poor in the name of all the members of one's daily family every day of the fast.

The fast is very rigorous, lasting from sunrise to sunset every day. Children and the elderly or sick are exempt from following the fast where it could be harmful to their health or well-being. Fasting is not so popular among us Christians these days, but it has benefits which continue to inspire the Muslim faithful.

1. No one will accept the strict discipline unless acknowledging God as sovereign in one's life.
2. It is a training in patience and steadfastness.
3. It stimulates sympathy for and solidarity with the poor. The fast puts everyone on the same level.
4. Fasting provides an opportunity for concentrating on God and increasing one's intensity of communion with God. The one who fasts is asked to refrain not only from food and drink, but from all kinds of falsehood in speech and action.

Let us pray for our Muslim brothers and sisters as they continue the time of Ramazaan. Allah, who is certainly Abba of us all, be praised!

Father Bob Grib, S.J.

Mass of Hope and Healing

On Thursday, September 25th, at 7:00 pm, St. Juliana Parish will host a special Mass. This Mass of 'Hope and Healing' will be celebrated for all God's children who have died. This Mass is for parents, brothers, sisters and family members who have suffered the loss of a child, no matter what age, through miscarriage, SIDS, abortion, illness or sudden deaths brought about through addiction or suicide. This Mass will also help us to remember to give thanks or to be healed if anger or guilt still remain after the death of one's child.

Nothing can be more agonizing than the loss of a child. If you have had this experience or know of someone who has, please extend this invitation to them. We encourage you to bring a memento of your child (favorite photo, toy, blanket, etc.) which will be blessed during Mass.

Please contact Joyce Browne at the Parish Business Office, if you have further questions, 631.4127.

Holy Hour in The Chapel

Monday Evenings from 7:00pm - 8:00 pm

What is Holy Hour?

Holy Hour is a quiet, personal time with Jesus before the Blessed Sacrament. Away from all the noise and distractions of the world.

No special program to follow, just an intimate time with Jesus. You look at Him and He lovingly gazes at you.

One hour out of your hectic week, to come and be refreshed and renewed.

Please come once and see what happens. Jesus is patiently waiting for you.

Ministry of Care Training

Ministers of Care are very special people who bring Communion to the homebound, those in nursing homes, rehab facilities and those who are hospitalized.

St. Juliana Parish is blessed with individuals who have accepted the call to be a part of this wonderful ministry, but there is always a need for more volunteers.

To become a Minister of Care, the Archdiocese of Chicago requires a six week training course. Upon completion of the course, participants are mandated to bring communion to the sick, homebound and hospitalized of our parish.

Training will take place from September 17th through October 22nd at either Resurrection Medical Center or Advocate Lutheran General Hospital. The sessions will be on Wednesday evenings from 7:00-9:00pm.

If you are interested and would like more information, please speak with either one of our Minister of Care Coordinators – Deacons Bob Ryan and Ed Dolan, or call Pam Francisco at 773.631.2239.

OFFICE OF THE CARDINAL

Archdiocese of Chicago

September 2, 2008

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the midst of a lengthy political campaign, matters of public policy that are also moral issues sometimes are misrepresented or are presented in a partial or manipulative fashion. While everyone could be expected to know the Church's position on the immorality of abortion and the role of law in protecting unborn children, it seems some profess not to know it and others, even in the Church, dispute it. Since this teaching has recently been falsely presented, the following clarification may be helpful.

The Catholic Church, from its first days, condemned the aborting of unborn children as gravely sinful. Not only Scripture's teaching about God's protection of life in the womb (consider the prophets and the psalms and the Gospel stories about John the Baptist and Jesus himself in Mary's womb) but also the first century catechism (the Didache or Teaching of the Twelve Apostles) said: "You shall not slay the child by abortions. You shall not kill what is generated." The teaching of the Church was clear in a Roman Empire that permitted abortion. This same teaching has been constantly reiterated in every place and time up to Vatican II, which condemned abortion as a "heinous crime." This is true today and will be so tomorrow. Any other comments, by politicians, professors, pundits or the occasional priest, are erroneous and cannot be proposed in good faith.

This teaching has consequences for those charged with caring for the common good, those who hold public office. The unborn child, who is alive and is a member of the human family, cannot defend himself or herself. Good law defends the defenseless. Our present laws permit unborn children to be privately killed. Laws that place unborn children outside the protection of law destroy both the children killed and the common good, which is the controlling principle of Catholic social teaching. One cannot favor the legal status quo on abortion and also be working for the common good.

This explains why the abortion issue will not disappear and why it is central to the Church's teaching on a just social order. The Church does not endorse candidates for office, but she does teach the principles according to which Catholics should form their social consciences. The teaching, which covers intrinsic evils such as abortion and many other issues that are matters of prudential judgment, could not be clearer; the practice often falls short because we are all sinners. There is no room for self-righteousness in Catholic moral teaching.

The Conference of Bishops in this country and the Bishops of Illinois have issued statements about Catholic social teaching and political life. They are available in our parishes. All of us should keep our country and all the candidates for office in the next election in our prayers. God bless you and your families.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
