God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.
— Romans 8:31b
Fourth Sunday of Lent
“Repent, Renew, Rejoice”

God’s mercy draws us heavenward. We can mistakenly assume we do not have to do our part. Just as the people in the desert needed to lift up their eyes to see the serpent, we must look with faith on Christ crucified and respond to the mercy of God.

Mission Prayer

In the passion of the cross, Lord Jesus, You showed your great love for the world. In this time of Lent and mission change our hearts to love as you love. May your Spirit direct our lives that we may be your light in the darkness of this world; that we may be a people of peace and justice accepting all people of the earth as our sisters and brothers. In our sinfulness and for the times we have turned from you, forgive us and call us to return to your love as we recognize that our greatest thirst is for you. And bring us one day to your heavenly kingdom when you will transform our crosses into the glory of your resurrection. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Lenten Banks

Lenten Banks may be returned to church during any of the Holy Week services.

Lenten Mission 2012

No Greater Love: Reflections on the Last Seven Words of Jesus

March 25 through March 27
7:00 PM in Church
Fellowship After Each Session

Please join us as Fr. Johnpaul Cafiero, OFM, leads us through three evenings of reflection upon the message of Jesus’ last words to us, today’s disciples:

Sunday, March 25
I thirst. Father forgive them. Woman, behold your son.

Monday, March 26
My God, My God, why... This day you will be with me in paradise.

Tuesday, March 27
Into your hands, it is finished.

Fr. Johnpaul is a well-known mission leader in the community; we reserved him for our 2012 mission over two years ago. His wisdom and humor illustrate stories about faith and doubt, addictions and conversion, depression and surrender, death and new life. We promise you an enjoyable and strengthening experience for junior high students through senior citizens.

Special Notes

As a prelude to the mission, Fr. Johnpaul will preach at each of the Sunday masses next weekend, March 24/25.

Each night’s program will begin at 7:00 PM and conclude at approximately 8:30 PM. Please join us after each evening’s session for reflection and refreshments in the church vestibule.

While a mission experience is most complete when all sessions are attended, please try and join us even if your schedule only allows for one or two evenings. Call Joyce Browne at the parish office (773.631.4127) to communicate your transportation needs or for additional information about the mission.

You can learn more about Fr. Johnpaul at his website: www.friarjp.com

Girl Scout Religious Award Recipients

On Sunday, March 11, 2012, eight girls from Cadette Troop 688 received the Puella Mariae Medal. While working on this award the girls explored the spiritual meaning of the Girl Scout Promise and Laws.

The Latin meaning of Puella Mariae is “Child of Mary.” The girls used Mary as a role model to demonstrate the importance that women play in the corporal and spiritual needs of our community. The girls receiving the award were: Kate Bazarek, Susan Childers, Caela Gustaitis, Noelle McGlinn, Jackie Regnier, Julia Rottman, Samantha Simonetti, and Lorena Soria.

Congratulations, ladies!
